Halloween Costume? Gordy Cooper and Dante DiGiacomo dress up as nerds.

What Are You Looking At? Joe "Shmo" Sutherland glares at the camera.

Read My Shirt: Kelly Emerson, Krissie Berg, Stephanie Hoeft, and Jackie McEwen wonder what's taking the photographer so long?

Scott:

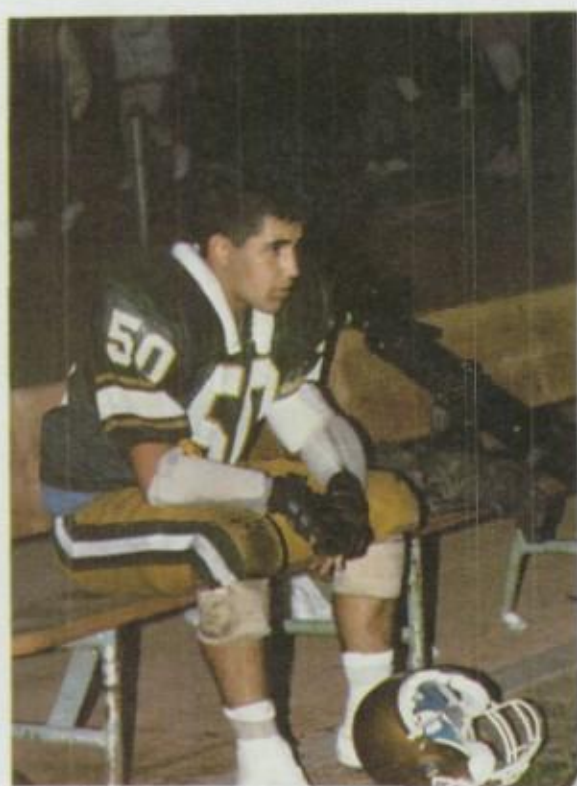

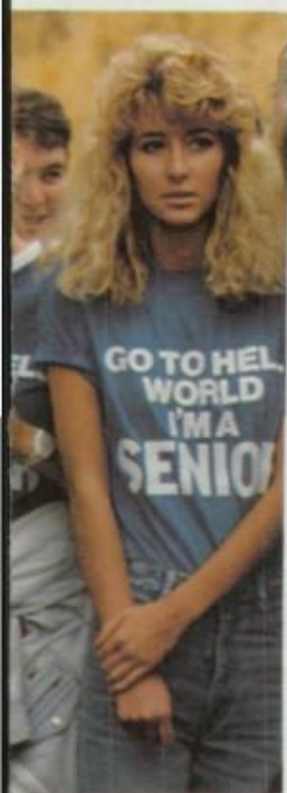

Well shoot's out and the summer's

Nice Try: Ramone Valdez sits mournfully after a heroic struggle on the football field.

CRACKS AND CUTS

Chris Sorbello seems to have high hopes for UCLA as he plays on the bars.

Jenni Pickrell, Diana Edamura, Laura West, and Jody Carmen prove that four heads are better than one.

Ken Arevalo: "Hey Joe! Look it's that cool guy Gary in that other picture!"
Joe Waterman: "No way! You better stand back!"

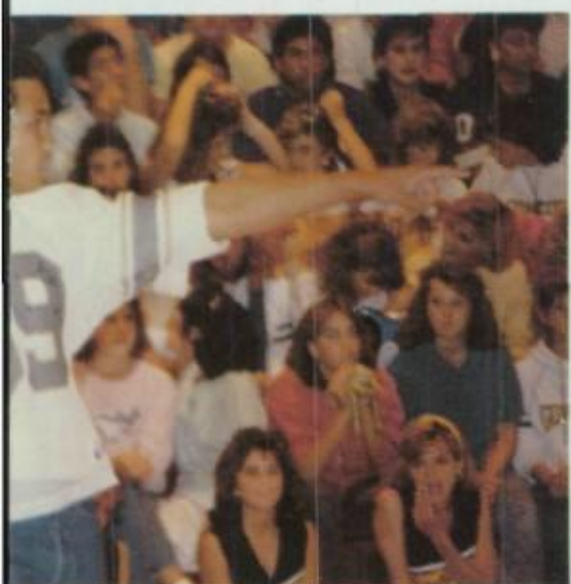

Bob Caldera and Jason Lucas open up a day care center

Ken Twohy asks Jeanna Marriott, "What's that fragrance that your wearing?"

Gary Vasconi, craving for attention, takes drastic measures to stand out.

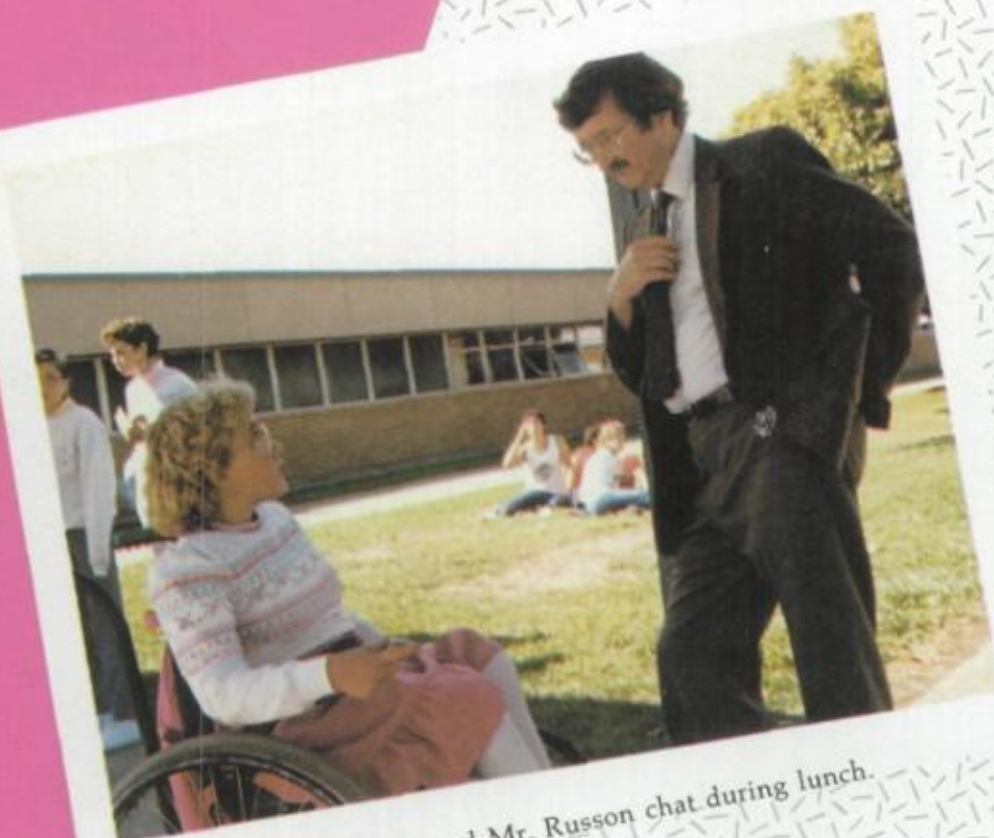

OFFBEAT, WHIMSICAL...STUDE

Steve Zirkelbach, Dan McKechnie, Inge Christian, Joy Omania, Tami Harris and Lauri Kitowski smile pretty at a dance.

Concord High is a school full of color and happy faces. It's a friendly atmosphere where just about everyone gets along. New students who come to CHS are surprised at how well the different groups get along with each other. That's what makes our school NUMBER ONE!!

Shelby Price and Mr. Russon chat during lunch.

Mike Chambers, Eric Dahlstrom, Dan McKechnie, Andre Vogel, Ron Panglinan, Dave Lampton, Jeremy Ke, Mark Millican, and Matt Woolridge bid wildly on the slave they desire.

FOR US ALL TO REMEMBER!

As I spied through spirit week many weird assumptions traveled through my brain. Things such as, "what in tarnation is going on?" "Is it me that's insane or is it just all of them?" kept ringing in my head. People danced and paraded around the school looking absolutely ridiculous. Grown teenagers acted like little boys and girls. Pie fights? I never thought I'd see the day! Over all, everybody participated in these strange events. Activities that happened from October 13 through to the 17th will remain remembered. How can anyone forget such school spirit and such good fun? I learned at the end that no-one was insane as it was just a bunch of happy people having loads of fun.

Loving the ever so dreaded Servants Day are Mike Murphy, Jeff Leontini, and Tony Travis.

Servants Jenni Pickrell and Diana Edamura alias "Spot" and "Manure" too late to realize they do have whipped cream pies all over themselves.

A child at heart Ken Arevalo goes through the obstacle course enjoying every embarrassing moment of it!

Fighting drastically to catch the remaining pie, Deanna King and Ramon Valdez think twice about ever playing this game again!

Head Honcho servant Amy Goehring smiles nervously at the coming order from her master!

"Hey do you think we're doing the right thing?" asks Chris Van Thull to Dan Primus!

Going through the obstacle course in a massive hurry is Charity Cammado!

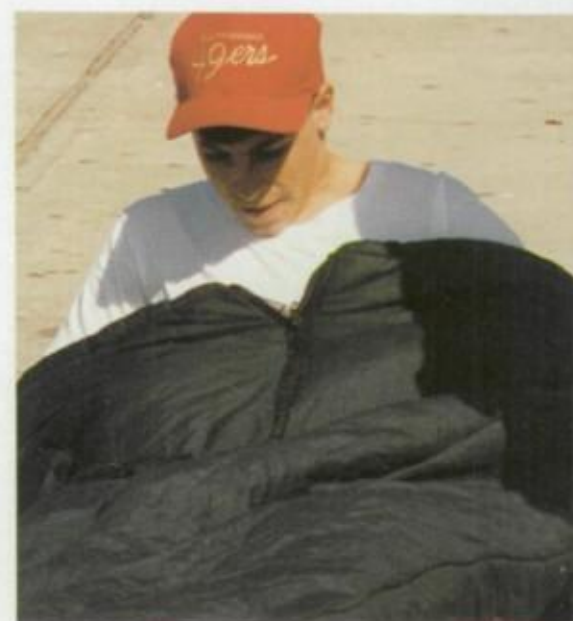

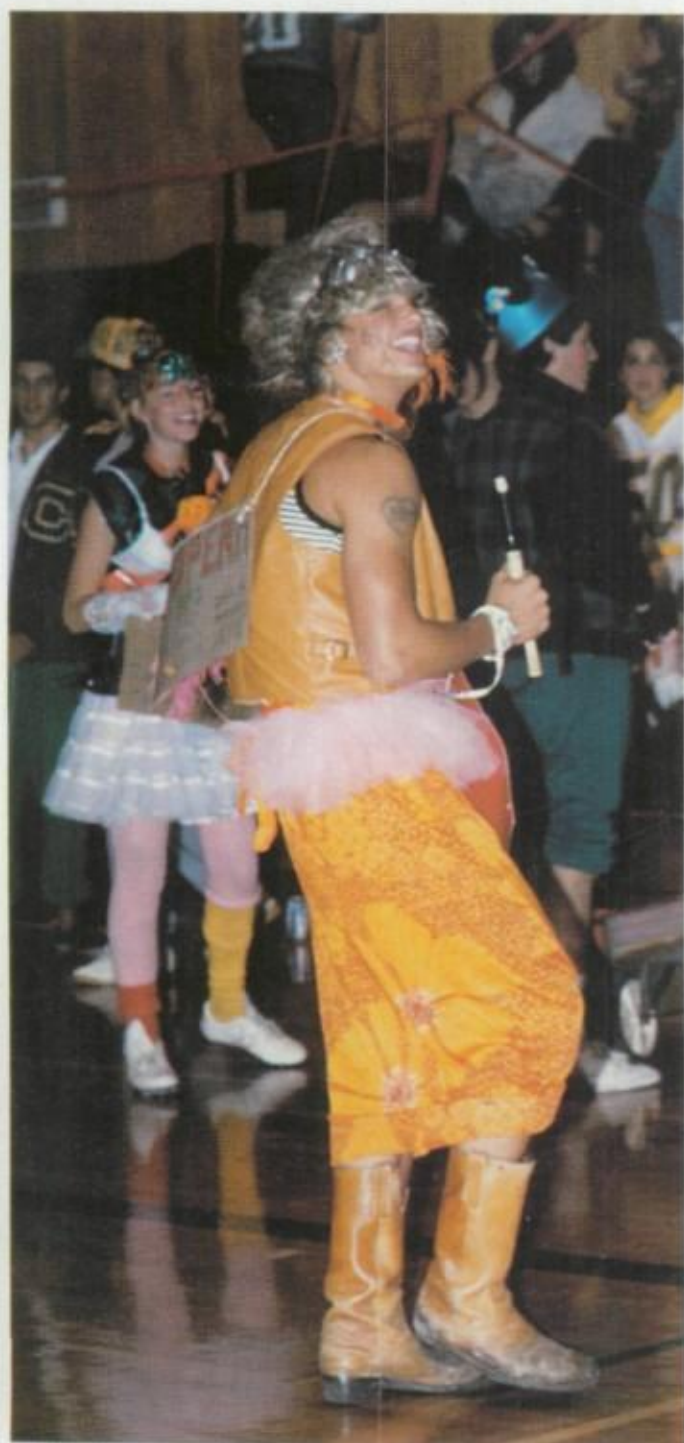

Being carried across by 50 freshmen in the mattress pass is Freshman Tommy Goehring!

INSANITY OF SPIRIT WEEK

October 13 to October 17 was Homecoming Spirit week this year. On College Day, students were clad in sweatshirts of their favorite colleges. Hat, tie, t-shirt, parka and thongs day needs no explanation. Needless to say, not many people dressed up on this day. Quite a few turned up in robes and nighties on Pajama Day, though. For one day, it looked as if everyone had gotten out of bed and came straight to school! Sports/Sweats day was yet another easy day to participate in. On Toga Day, Concord High was transformed into a Roman Coliseum as students strolled through the quad in togas, wreaths and sandals. A highlight that day was when the homecoming court was auctioned off to the highest bidder. Jeff Leontini and Gary Vasconi won the highest overall bid, with $110. Homecoming Week was pulled off with much style and splash. Everyone had a jolly-good time!

SPYING WITH AMUSEMENT

Quite an experience it was this Halloween. There were so many unique costumes to set the mood. From the not so unique "baby" costume down to the communists and terrorist groups and of course there are always the punk rockers. The October Fest was celebrated during lunch with booths selling much food and drinks. The mood was set with a live band playing in the quad. Many students and teachers dressed up to get in the spirit. To end Halloween, CHS held a dance with KSOL as the D.J.s. What a fun dance and way to end Halloween for 1986.

Jennifer Seybolt, Kati Habermas and Kim Snyder invade the school.

Marcus Schaffer uses "grandma" as his slave for the day.

Marco Michelato- alias Fred Astaire.

Jeff Crabtree holds down his herd.

Brian "thumper" Marshall is cow punky for the night.

I SPY.....

... something beginning with the letter S, guess yet? I am reporting to you that there had been various styles on the campus, but the newest ones that I sought after were noticed in the crowded hall in this hip and ever so happening school. The "Cool" thing to do was dying, bleaching, tinting or a little lightening here and there to add to all numerous hair trends.

It was considered attractive to wear sweaters, anywhere from button up cardigans & V-necks to turtle neck sweaters. Many people also wore turtle neck shirts underneath a sweater. Sizes of sweaters were rangeable, but the vast majority of people wore big and greatly oversized sweaters.

The thrashin' thing to do was skating. Boards such as Sims, Powell Peralta, G&S and Santa Cruz were some brands seen on campus. Activities such as surfing also took place on various beaches in Santa Cruz and Half Moon Bay boards such as Mccoy, Pearson Arrow and Free-line Design were ridden. If you didn't fit in any of the above category the other alternative was dancing the Groupies hung out at Lipps in W.C. and then there was Primary mostly held at the Pleasant Hill Rec or Star Gaze in Fremont. If you wanted to hear good "Dance, New Disco" music accompanied by an older more experienced crowd you went to Clubs in S.F. or better know as "the city". Clubs like Das Klub, Gotham City, previously known as Speed was the place to go.

SOMETHING TO SPY ABOUT

According to all my inspections, this has been a fabulous year in both Freshmen and J.V. cheer.

Freshmen cheered their winning football team to victories and more victories. They showed time and time again what school spirit really meant.

J.V. cheer helped their J.V. team also to victory with a non-defeated season. They gave spirit to the games and proved to everyone who really was the best.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading and Songleading for a school are hard working tasks. One particular aspect overlooked by many, is the exorbitant cost. It can definitely be overwhelming, for example the average cheerleader/songleader spends approximately $500. Major expenditures are uniform, jacket, camp, and camp clothes.

Camp is a genuine experience at U.C. Santa Cruz. Cheerleaders and Songleaders both, spend 3 days, working out from 8:00 AM to 11:00 PM to fulfill the required events. When they return to school in the fall, the practice only continues. Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, they practice for at least 30 to 45 minutes, sometimes even more if there is an important upcoming rally or game.

SONGLEADERS

Varsity Co-Head Songleader Cindy Bloczynski: "This year's squad has really improved and it has been a lot of fun, especially at camp. Good luck to all the Juniors, especially Julie Goto." (Varsity Co-Head Songleader).

Co-Head Cheerleader Darnelle Huus talking about her squad: "We seemed to get our act together and became good friends in the process. I couldn't have done it without Karla Oliver." (Varsity Co-Head Cheerleader) "This years squad was a valuable asset to all the games, they helped bring about school spirit and gave fun, exciting times to Concord High."

Lynette Odegard-1987 Homecoming Queen

Her arms overflowing with flowers, Lynette strikes a regal pose.

The 1986-87 Homecoming Court, along with last year's queen Gina Brodie, await further announcements.

Lynette and Jackie grin at each other when they realize that they are the last two left.

Lynette can't decide whether to cry or laugh when she is announced queen.

OW! SHE'S...

It was a starry, moonlit night that October 17th when Lynette Odegaard was crowned Homecoming Queen. There was just enough light to see the beautiful girl in pink walk serenely across the dewy field at Mt. Diablo High. The other lovely finalists, Diana Edamura, Darnelle Huus, Jackie McEwen, and Buffie Stolarczyk were all proud of their friend Lynette.

The evening started with a football game against Pittsburgh High. Yes, we were trounced athletically but nothing could dim the glow of the five homecoming finalists.

Down the field they glided, escorted by beaming fathers. Anxiety grew as the names of the runners-up were announced.

I can't believe it Daddy! Lynette hugs her father as our new Homecoming Queen.

Finally, the last two girls were left, Jackie McEwen and Lynette Odegaard. A hush fell over the crowd, and then Lynette Odegaard was pronounced the 1986-87 Homecoming Queen. Tears, laughter, and confusion followed as everyone rushed to congratulate her. Congratulations Lynette! May October 17, 1986 live forever in your dreams!

Diana and Mr. Edamura pose for a picture after the long walk across the field.

Buffie Stolarczyk and her father glance at the crowd.

HE'S SO FINE...

WISH HE WERE MINE . . .

It was another captivating evening on October 18th. The night before we had seen Lynette Odegaard being crowned queen at the game and tonight we would see her crown the King.

Couple by couple the gym became filled with many dazzling gown and tuxedo. The excitement grew greater, til it finally reached a climax at the announcement of the 1987 Homecoming King. Everyone crowded around, each privately hoping for their own favorite . . . until Mike Murphy was pronounced King. Then Lynette gently placed upon him his crown and they began the traditional slow dance. The rest of the night quietly wound down and when it came to an end, though it was sad we knew that we were left with many beautiful memories forever.

Mike Murphy . . . sexy, suave, and all-around sensational.

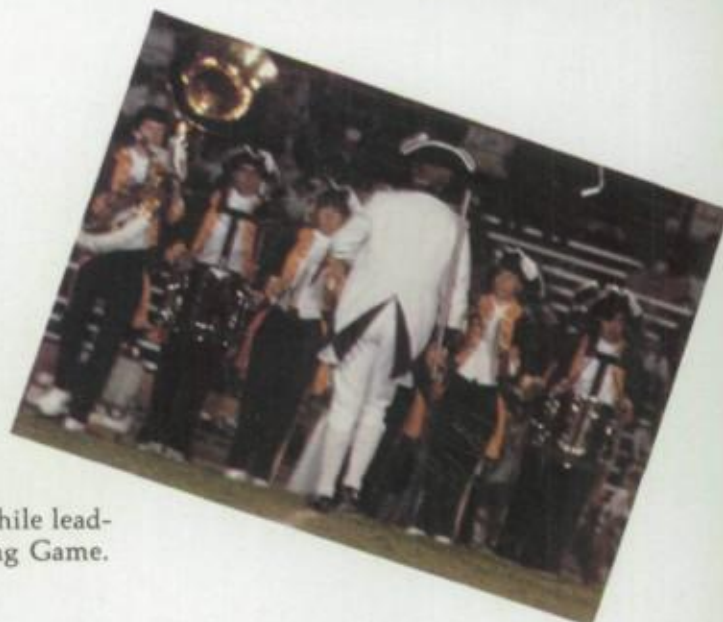

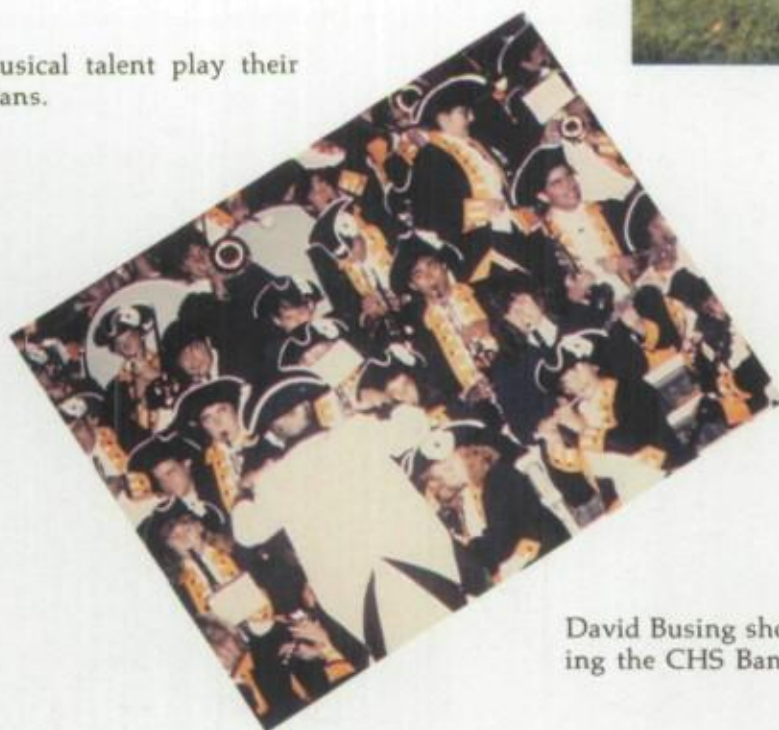

NOBODY DOES IT BETTER—

The Concord High Minuteman Marching Band is again the number one marching band in the region. They have represented us with pride and polish. Hundreds of Parade First Place and Sweepstakes Awards from all across California have established the CHS Band as one of the State's premier street bands. With their distinctive Colonial uniforms and solid sound, our Band has also been featured at the U.S. Bicentennial in Concord, Mass., the National Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C., the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, Super Bowl XX, the San Francisco Giants, Disneyland, the Greater Victoria Days Parade in Victoria, B.C., and the Winchester, Virginia Apple Blossom Festival. During the fall, the Band performed on national T.V. during the Hollywood Lane Parade. The Band is active in the California Music Educators Association Concert and Jazz Festivals, where they have consistently earned Superior Ratings.

This year's large band, numbering 103, spent one weekend in September at CHS' First Annual Band Camp. Led by Drum Major David Busing and percussion Captain Kendall Griffiths, the Band marched over hill and dale, and then they marched some more. Mr. Hammer calls the 1986-87 Band the best in years and assures us that he wouldn't trade his job for anything. Nobody does it better!

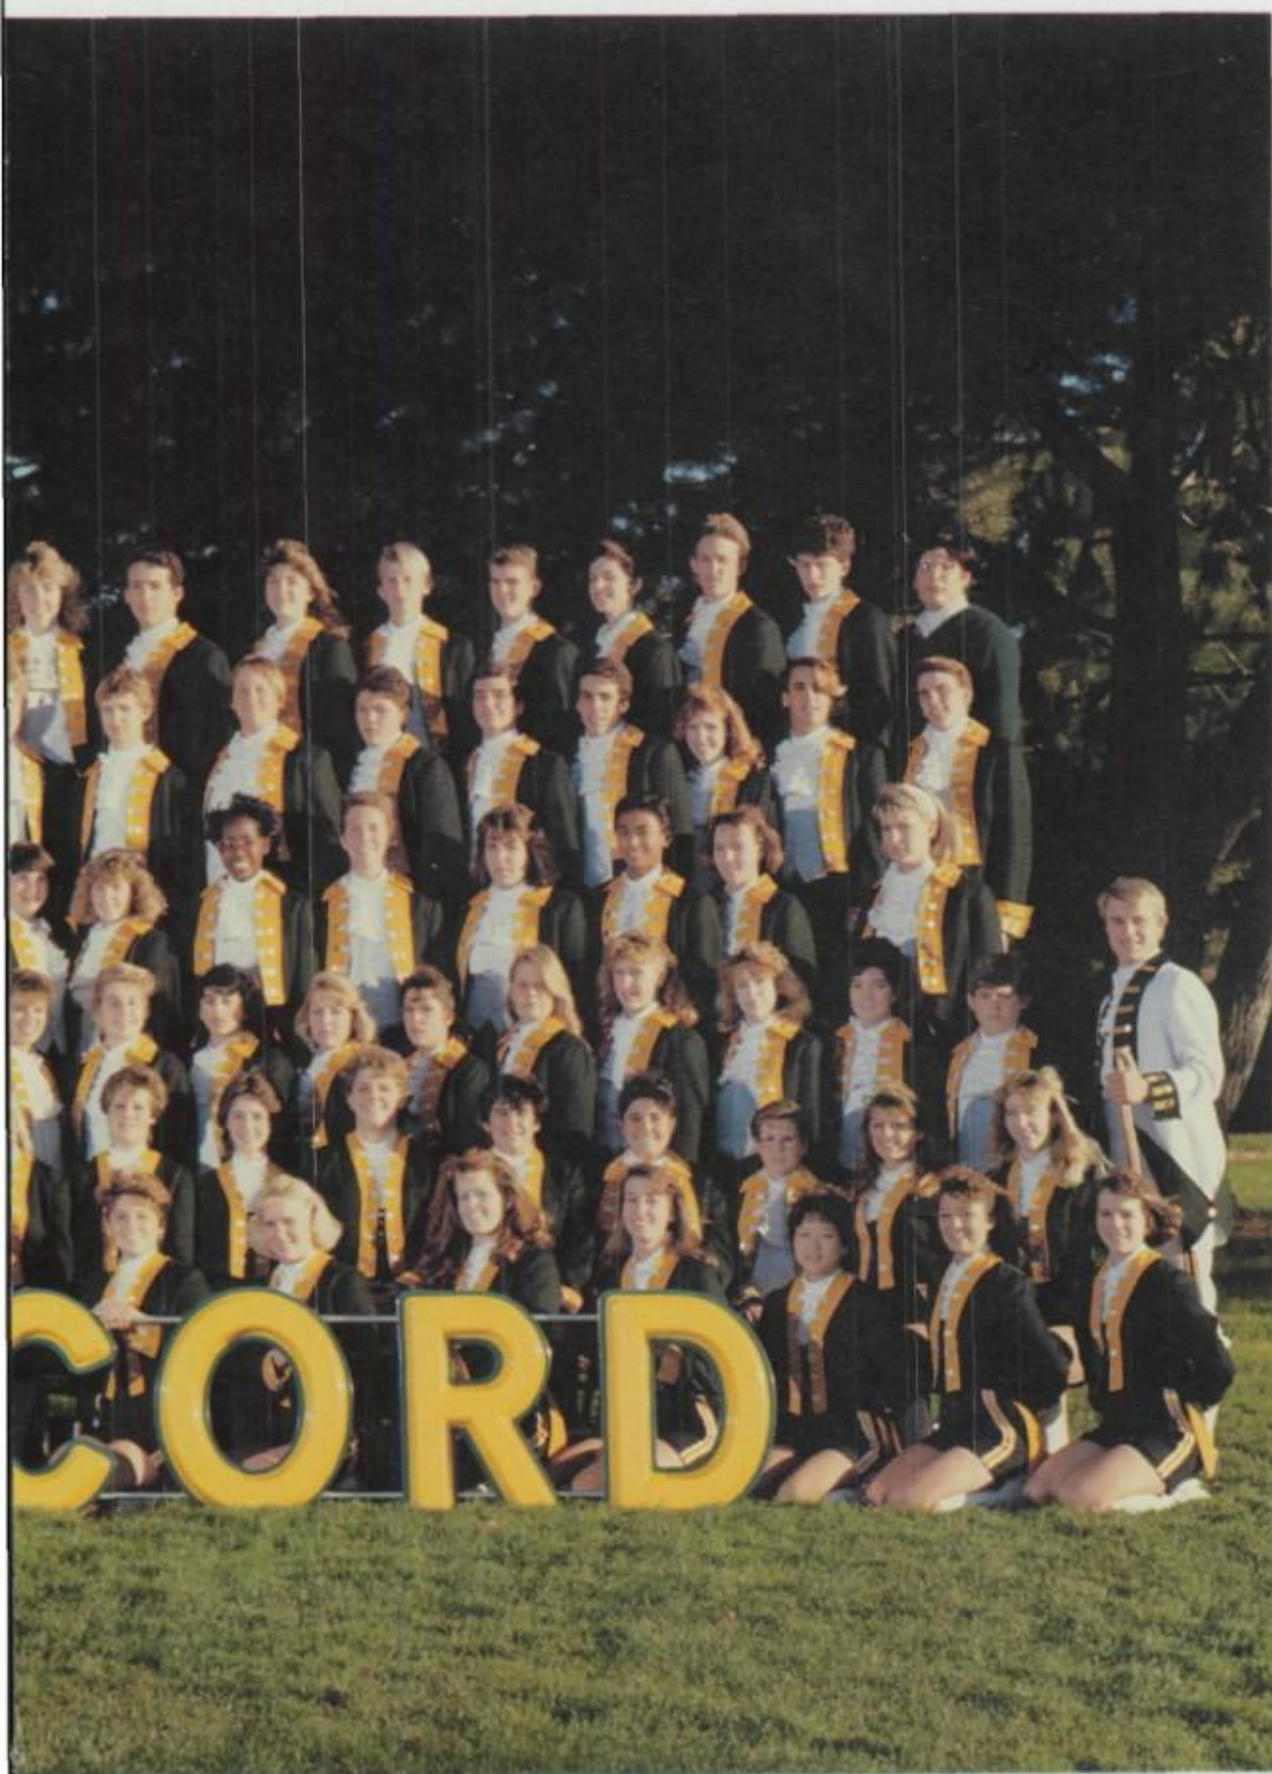

Concord High's musical talent play their hearts out for the fans.

COLOR AND EXCITEMENT

Tall Flags, Swing Flags, and Lettergirls liven up the band's performances.

What makes Concord High's Marching Band such a colorful and exciting group to watch? It's the girls out in front, waving their flags in synchronicity and carrying their letters with pride, that's what! Swing Flags, Tall Flags and Lettergirls, each and every one is an essential part of our marching band's appearance.

The auxiliaries practice diligently after school with taped music. And they get together once a week to march with the band. Diana Edamura, Jody Carmean, and Jenni Pickrell are the respective heads of Swing Flags, Tall Flags and Lettergirls. These three girls are responsible for the choreography of the group's routines, most or all are composed with little or none adult supervision.

Mr. Hammer, the band director, is justifiably proud of these girls' accomplishments. Congratulations girls and thanks for all your efforts.

THE AGONY AND THE ECSTASY

Evolution of Yearbook conversation: What's a pica? How do you draw a layout? Can I go on ads? Mr. Klarer, is this right? Let me see the pictures! Can we leave early? How do you use a cropper? I need a ruler! What's our job number? Stella or Trina, is this right? Where are the pictures? Turn up the music! Is this layout too weird? I can't think of a caption! Can you type this for me? Stella or Trina is this right? This layout doesn't fit! Turn the music down! How do you number the pictures? Give me some scissors. Got any white out? Mr. Klarer, is this right? I've got to stay and get this done! Have the pictures come back yet? We sold a full page ad!! This is a great caption! A rad layout, if I do say so myself! All I have to do is type this. Stella or Trina, is this right? Yeah, we're done! We did it! God, we're good!

Oh, that's it! Trina Jong throws up her ruler in exasperation as her co-editor, Stella Ngai, tries to calmly have a discussion with her.

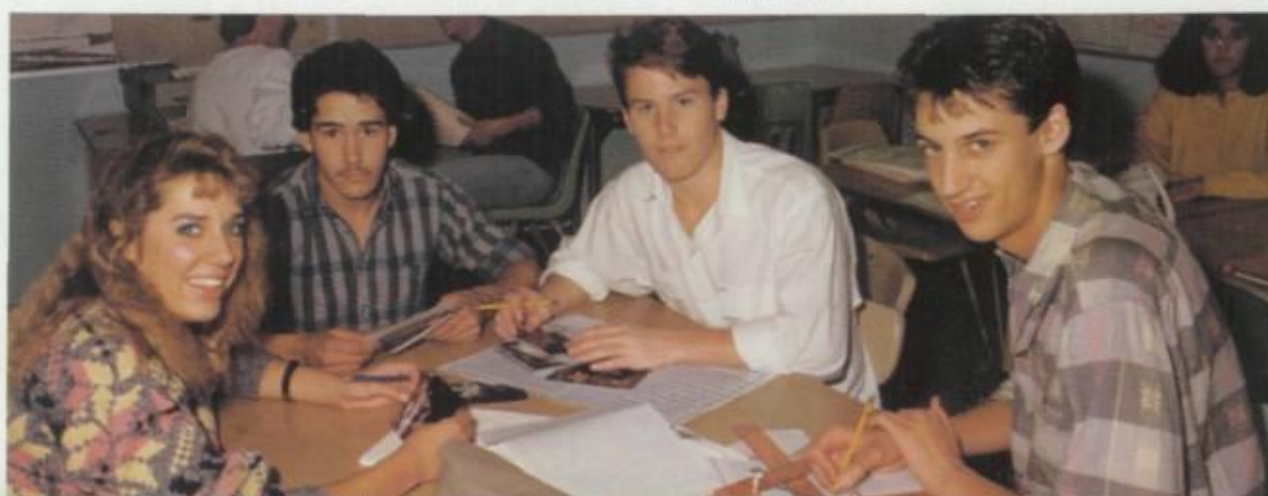

Yes, it's true! These "hoodlums" banded together to create this extraordinary yearbook!

CHOIR GOES TO IRELAND!

Choir had one of the greatest experiences ever this year - going to Ireland! They were one of the two California High Schools chosen by Dr. McGilvery to sing at a Saint Patricks Day Festival in Limerick. With a fund raiser every two weeks and group projects, the concert choir was able to earn enough money to pay for their trip. Besides participating in the Saint Patricks Day Festival, choir members also enjoyed sightseeing, dining, and attending an international dance. Mrs. Walker is a spectacular teacher and has one of the best choirs ever at Concord High. Everyone had a fun-filled, exciting year. Way to go choir!

STUDENT STORE-A STUDENT SUCCESS

Doctor Don Rose cuts the ribbon on opening day.

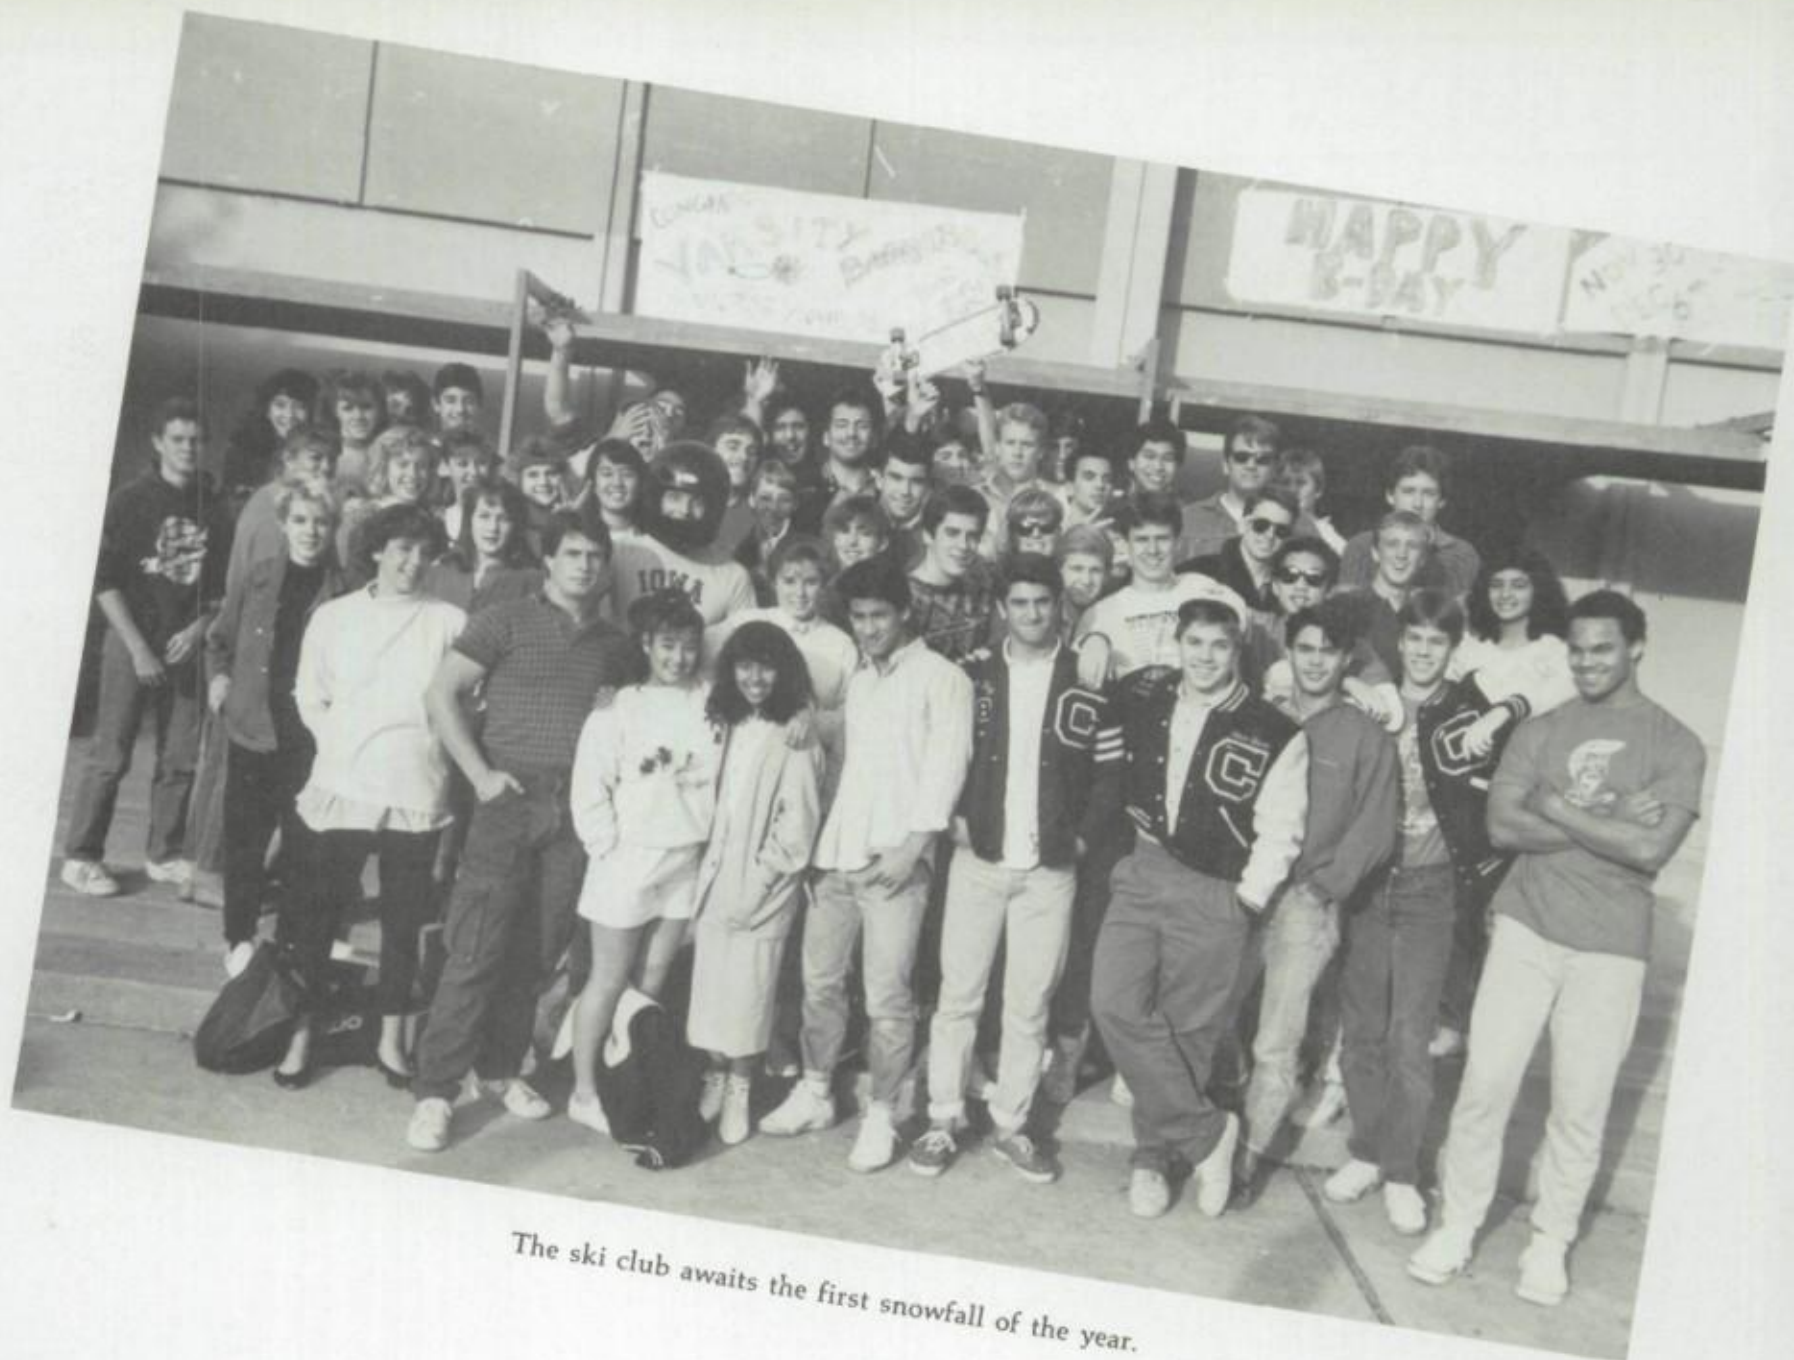

Concord High is the first school to have a very successful student store. It is run by special students here at CHS. It is open from 12:00 to 1:00 everyday where students can buy school supplies, candy, and other useful things. The purpose of the student store is to teach the special students that they can do things for themselves. They are learning stock, counting money, and waiting on customers. On opening day, Doctor Don Rose came to cut the ribbon to celebrate the opening of the new student store. The student store is a great addition to our school.

James Mason is one of the hard workers at the store.

Sara Malpass and Suzanne Caballo are working hard for the student store.

The ski club awaits the first snowfall of the year.

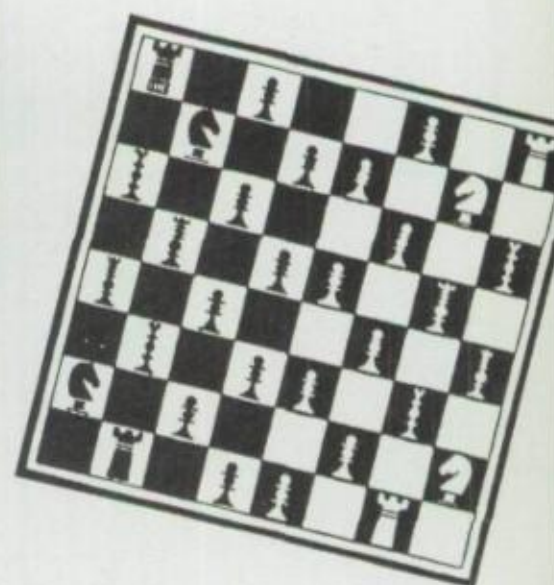

Everyone got into the school spirit by joining "club med".

Freshmen C.S.F.

Unlike other high schools, CSF at Concord High is not an elite association to which the general public is barred from. No, here at CHS, membership in the scholarship federation is quite high. To attain membership all of your subjects must be from the "A" list of courses (as determined by the University system) and high grades must be achieved. CSF club traditionally has a pizza party and a picnic at the end of the year. This year, CSF and the parents club are sponsoring a free field trip to Stanford and Cal Berkeley for students with a G.P.A. of 3.50 or better.

REPORTING ON 1986-1987 LEADERSHIP CLASS: By watching the leadership class work throughout this year I realized why this school and all its activities are so popular. This year leadership did many of the same activities with the exception of a new teacher, Mrs. Benton. Although Mrs. Benton was an amateur she had a terrific class and with everyone working together it was no wonder all the dances, spirit weeks and rallies were a huge success.

Hi Scott !!

Can I have a ride? Hey, that's how I know you. Well, I'm glad you asked. You're a cool guy and I'm glad I know you. I didn't know you were a sophomore, I thought you were a senior. Well, I've had an awesome year - next year couldn't be much better, but I know it will be. I'll probably see you over the summer or at least "hear" you when you guys beep at my house. Have a cool summer if I don't see you!!

PATRIOT STRIKES AGAIN

The 1985-86 Patriot staff had a good year with this year's paper. The patriot was under the direction of Karyn Scurti and Suzzanne Perez. Greg Mawn and Danny Wilson were the patriots Ads manager. The paper held exciting stories, advice columns, horoscopes, and many other interesting columns. The newspaper was a great success!

Karyn Scurti and Suzzanne Perez were the patriot co-editors.

Brad Currie was the managing editor and Klay Nichols was the sports editor. Not pictured: Christy Boswell.

Greg Mawn and Danny Wilson were the ads staff.

(top left) With pearly white teeth and sparkling dresses Vanna White took the spotlight. (top right) Royal Wedding II, this time it was Sarah Ferguson and Prince Andrew who stole our hearts. (bottom left) William Rehnquist tried to deny his bigotry, but was still appointed to Head of the Supreme Court of Justice.

It was the year of top guns. Patriotism took on a whole new meaning this year, climaxing on the 4th of July with a spectacular 100th birthday party for Lady Liberty. But there was a dark side to patriotism, as terrorist attacks became a deadly custom in Europe and the Mideast. 16 Westerners were still being held hostage by Arab terrorists at the close of '86.

The sports world naturally had its share of top guns as well. The New York Mets came from behind to snatch the World Series from the Boston Red Sox. Debi

Thomas became the 1st black woman to capture the World Figure Skating title. With his spiked hair, cocky manner, and bizarre sunglasses, Jim McMahon led the Chicago Bears to their first Super Bowl win in 23 years. The French were beat at their own game when Greg Lemond became the 1st American to win the Tour de France.

Sadly, two sports stars were claimed by drugs, Len Bias and Don Rogers. The nation went on a drug rampage, demanding on the cutdown of drug abuse.

THE CUTTING EDGE 1986

(top left) Ollie North kept quiet and wouldn't reveal a thing about the Iran-Contra deal. (top right) Actor Cary Grant, who charmed many a heart with his clipped British-accent and debonair good looks, passed away in the fall of 1986. (bottom right) David Letterman kept us all laughing through the late night hours.

"Top Gun", with heart-throb Tom Cruise, jetted to the top as '86 number 1 movie. Paul Hogan's famous phrase, "G'dye mate" as well as his hit movie "Crocodile Dundee" launched him into Superstar Status with Americans.

Whitney Houston's debut album outsold every album this year, with a string of hits like "You Give Good Love" and "Saving all my love for you". David Letterman made the leap from cult status to star as his talk show "Late night with David Letterman" drew 3.7 million viewers. Other popular musicians: Janet Jackson, who came into "Control" with hits like "What have you done for me lately?" and "When I think of you". Beastie Boys, whose "License to Ill" album spawned hits like "Brass Monkey". Bon Jovi crossed over from heavy metal to the pop charts with "You Give Love a Bad Name"; The Pet Shop Boys gave their "Opportunities" album and other songs like "West End Girls" and "Suburbia".

"Moonlighting" was the show of '86 as America turned into Cybill Shepard and Bruce Willis' mad romantic comedy show.

400 people took part in the Great Peace March for Global Nuclear Disarmament, a 9-month journey across the U.S.

Halley's Comet made its once-every-75-years visit by passing the earth in April.

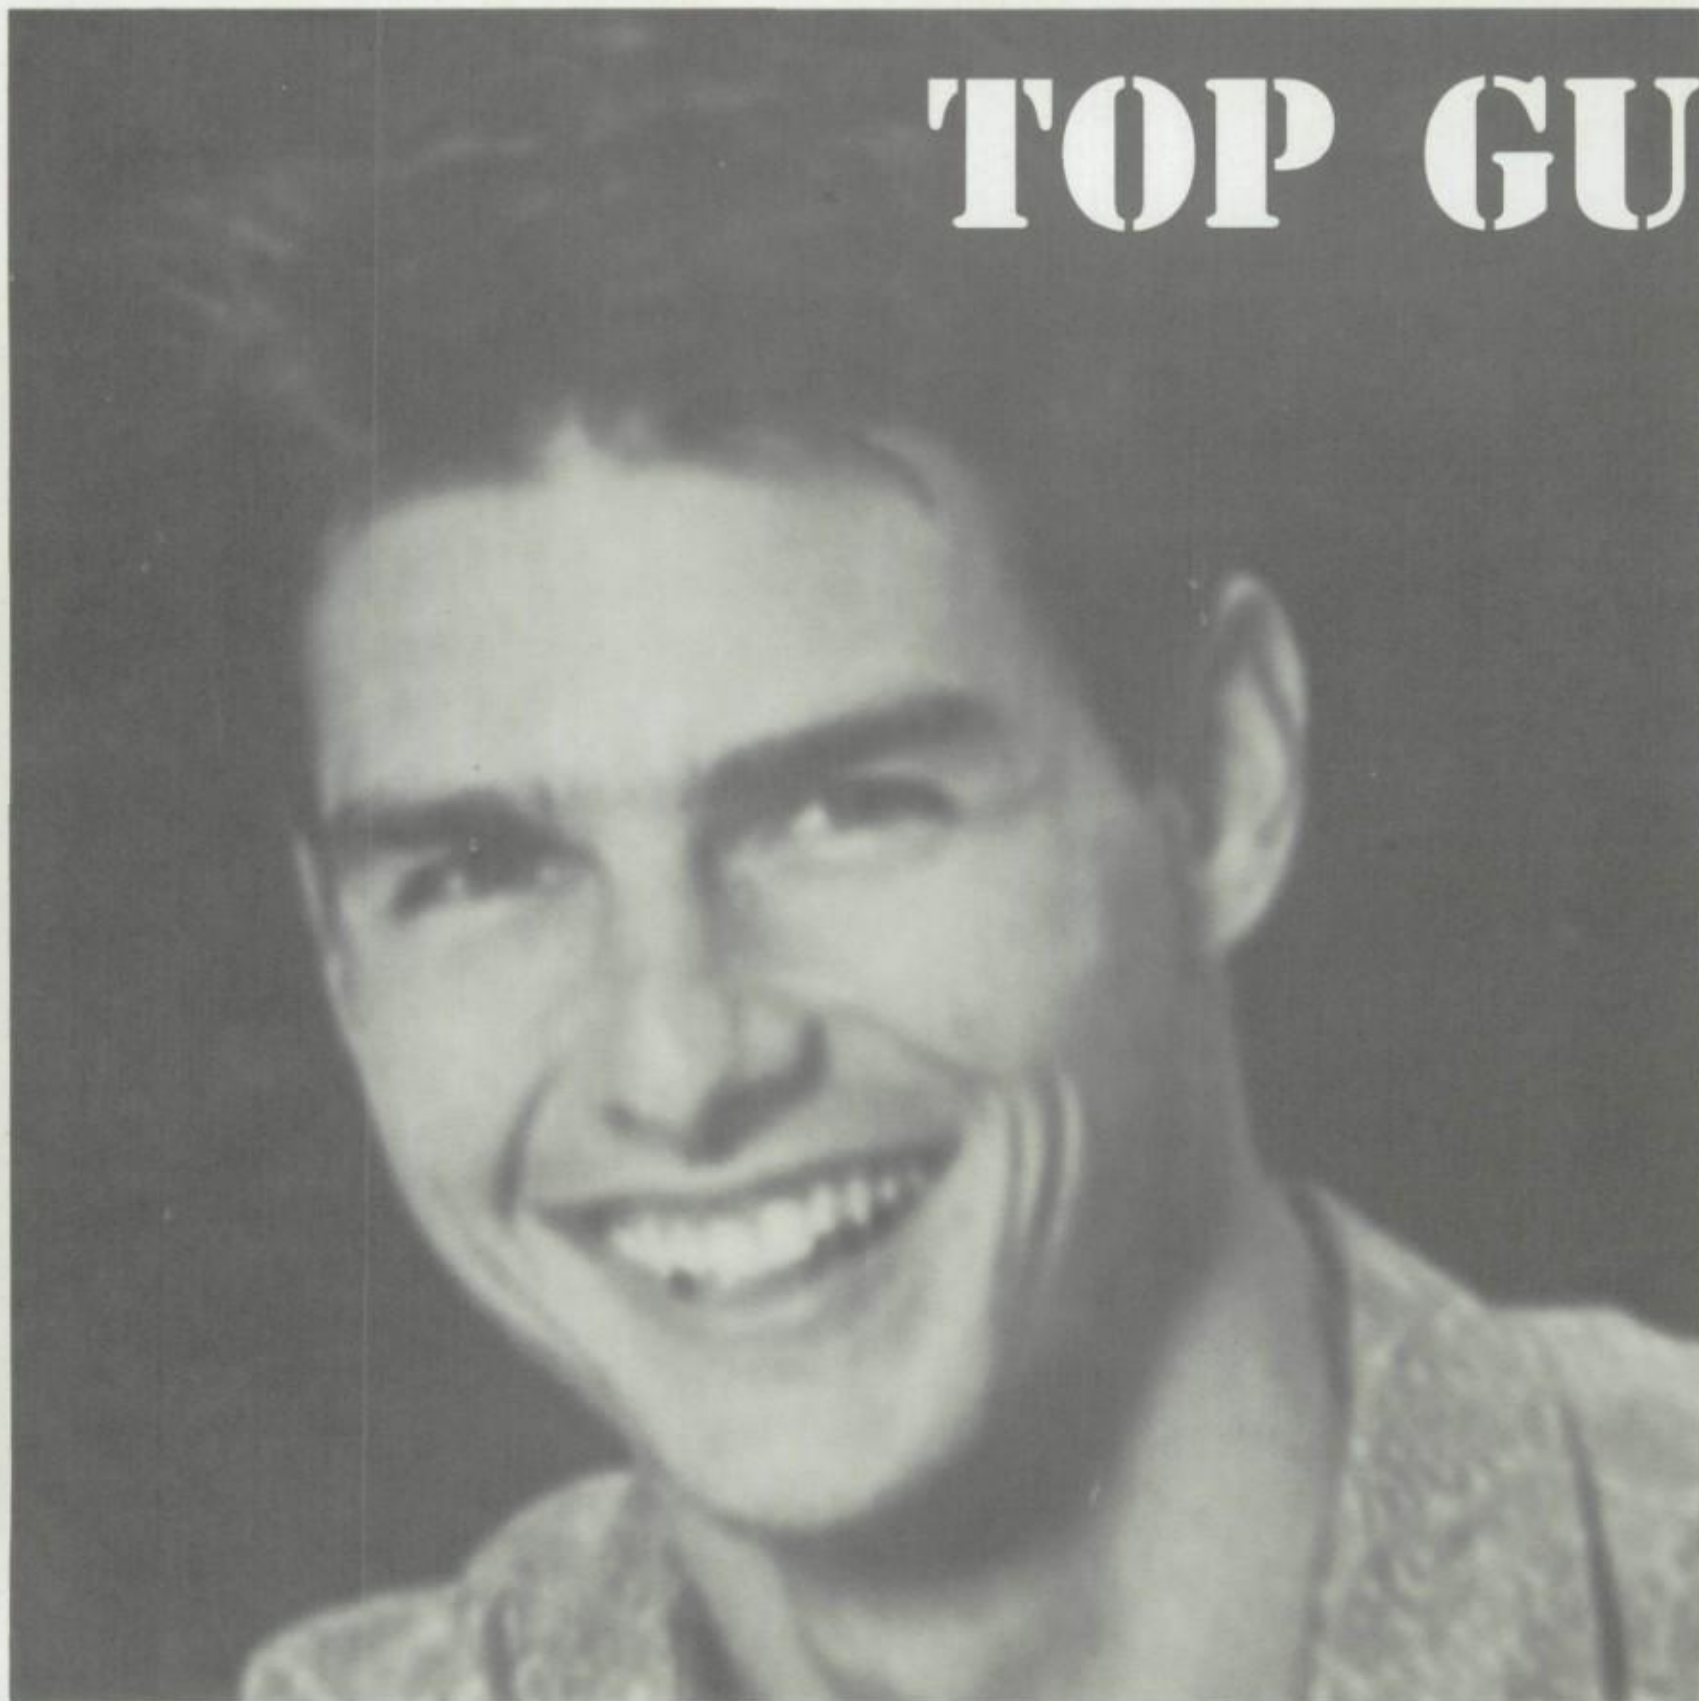

We bid a nostalgic farewell to Cary Grant, handsome leading man for 30 years. Some of his more famous movies include: The Philadelphia Story, Charade, & North by Northwest. His dapper manner, continental accent, and worldly charm will always be remembered.

It was another Watergate. A blow to President Reagan's popularity occurred in late '86 as it was discovered that money from sales of arms to Iran were being diverted to the Contras in Nicaragua.

Perhaps the saddest part of the year occurred when the space shuttle Challenger exploded seconds after takeoff. America mourned for our brave astronauts.

Americans-top guns one and all.

TOP GUNS

(right) Whitney Houston put out hit after hit, and took home many gold records and music awards.

Life is just one long party.

CLASS

Trina Farr walks proudly after a fine serve.

Pete Grosser showed spirit by dressing up during Octoberfest.

Chris Coleman tries to explain to his girlfriend, Lorraine Melara, he's going out with his friends Friday night.

These past four years have come to an end, but they will never be forgotten. We have learned and experienced many things that will enhance our lives deeply. We are faced with the reality of adulthood and are going to take on our own responsibilities, and each of us will grow to use our uniqueness to the fullest.

We all have had good and bad experiences throughout these four years, but they've made us grow and realize that life is full of surprises. There have been many lasting friendships made at Concord High, and these friendships will last a lifetime. High school is the foundation which has helped develop our morals and the memories will stay with us always. The more friends we keep in touch with, the better our lives will be.

Things like Friday night games, rallies, dances, parties, lunch in the quad, will be with us forever. Powder Puff, the prom, the ball, loves lost and gained. They all come together to give us a lifetime of memories. Memories that will stick with us the rest of our lives are the best kind of memories to have, and Concord High was and still is the best place to make them.

We, the graduating class of Nineteen Hundred and Eighty Seven leave the future graduating classes with the best of luck and hope you enjoy and have as great a time as we did.

Don't know about the rest, but the class of "87" is the best.

The GOD SQUAD has graduated.

Goodbye C.H.S., thanks for the memories.

Jolie Hatton, three hands are better than one.

Jeannie and friends.

The senior class showed spirit throughout the year at the football games, basketball games, and the rallies. The class of "87" showed togetherness by making picnic history. Over 95% of the senior class made it to the festivities of the day.

The weather wasn't the best, but it did not seem to bother the seniors. They still enjoyed all of the traditional activities, such as: swimming and bathing, football, volleyball, picture taking, and the most important part, eating.

The class of 1987 showed enthusiasm in gaining their new senior title by wearing their class color, blue, or wearing their senior "87" shirts.

Even though it wasn't really swimming weather, Mike Louvau, Ed Martinez, Jim Masters, Steve Alford, Trever Williams, Mike Proctor, and Larry Freeman dared the elements by taking a dip in the icy pool.

The seniors of 1987 did not know what to expect when it came time for the Senior Banquet. They knew that they had to look their best and they did. The night was going to be one of the most memorable nights of their Senior year. As they entered into the banquet, at Boundary Oaks Country Club, there was a feeling of magic that the night was going to be special. Dinner was next on the agenda and the anticipation of who was going to win the famed senior banquet awards. After the awards the Seniors danced the night away.. The night was not over, the party of the Senior year had just begun.

JUNIORS:

We're the JUNIORS, Next years ruling class. The class of 1988 which definitely has the most class! I would first like to give special thanks to my right-hand men: Tammy, Anne, Mark, and Jennifer. We started off the year with a new frontier, we had the opportunity to have the Jr. prom somewhere new. We got the Ramada Renaissance Hotel in Walnut Creek, but it was canceled because of construction difficulties. So we had our Jr. prom at the P.H. Rec Center. A great prom, we had a slide show, and a special surprise given away at the prom. I would like to share a few things the Jr. class has done to support school spirit:

1. We sold class name shirts, we're the "maniacs".
2. We did fund raisers, we sold candy, did brunch carts, we did the basketball concessions, we had a raffle, and did the computer micro-match.
3. Our X-mas skit was hurting, but we got it off. This was a fun year!

YOUR PRESIDENT,
KEN 2E

A CLASS

WITH SPIRIT

A WORD
FROM THE

CLASS
PRESIDENT

TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS:

This year has been great. I've enjoyed being the freshman class president. I would like to thank, Rob Rugani (vice president), Jeff Bowerbank (treasurer), and Jenny Phelps (Class Representative) for all the help they have given me with organizing freshman activities.

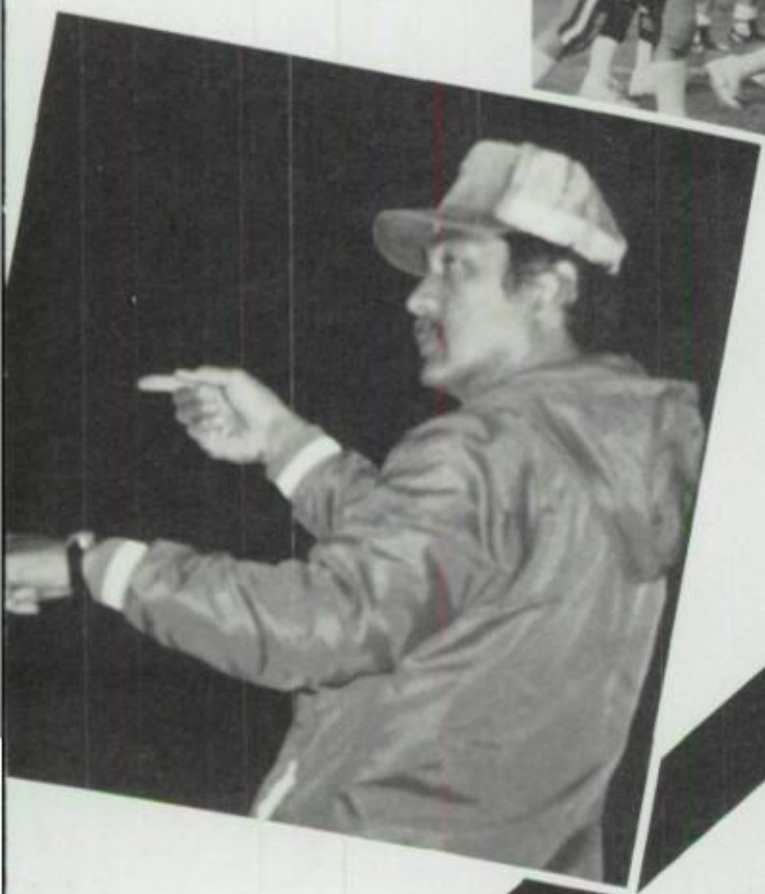

I'd like to continue being involved with leadership and I hope the class of 1990 will continue to have the spirit they have now throughout our high school years!

Thanks,
Jason Omania

CLASS OF 1990

THE EDGE CUTTING OF SPORTS

What do you get when you mix the two best coaches in volleyball and 10 of the most talented and hard-working volleyball players? A dominating volleyball team!! Coming off an outstanding year last year- second in league and in North-coast the team had high hopes this year. But by pre-season they were attacked by-injuries! It looked like luck wasn't going their way, until they got to the Modesto tournament. That's all the team needed to get its unity and its injured players back into action. After winning that tournament and placing second in two others, they were ready for an impressive season of third place. They did the impossible by beating North-gate and that helped to make their season unforgettable. They will miss their seven seniors and also their retiring coach Ms. King.

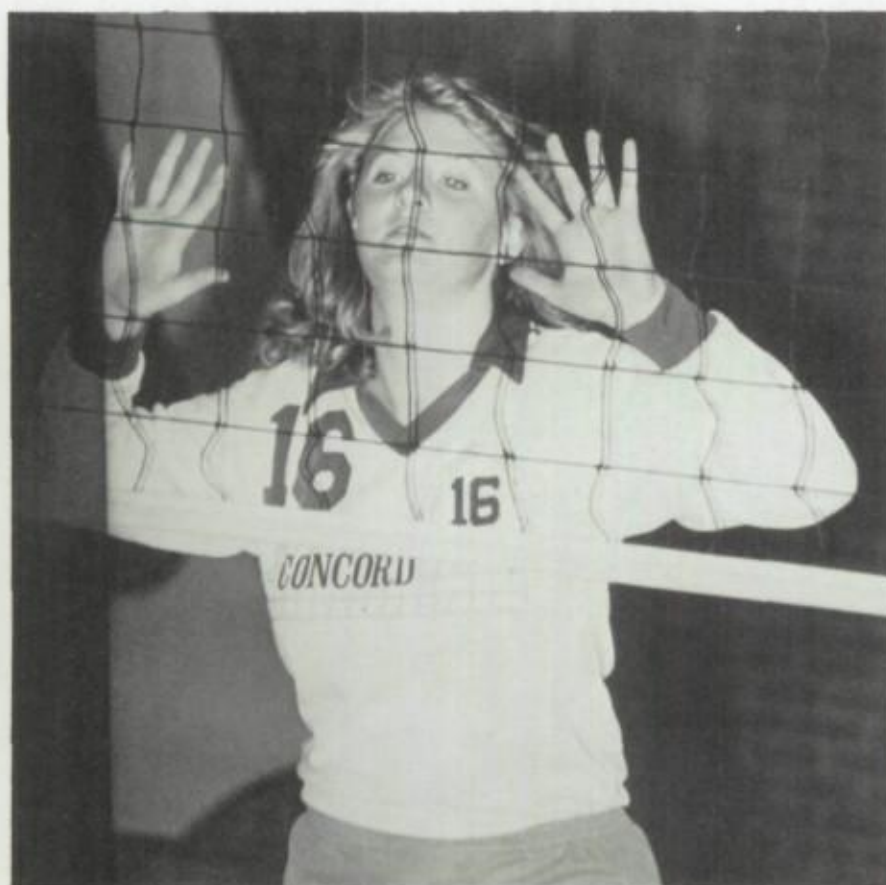

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

An impressive block by Imelda Cuevas and Tracy Badger faces the Antioch team.

A perfect dink by Tracy Badger shocks the other team.

Of course Erin Daley sets it up perfectly for the awaiting spiker.

"Yo say that one more time ref!" exclaims Stephanie Strawn as a dumb call is made.

J.V. VOLLEYBALL GOES UNDEFEATED

The J.V.s were definitely strong this year. Maybe it was because they carried seven freshmen on the squad! The team had the awesome setting of Darcie King and Heidi Heinrich, and the strong hitting of Deena Walker, Julie Aguiar, and Kirsten Seable. Julie Stevensen and Corky Butlers strong serving also lead the team to AN UNDEFEATED SEASON!!!!!! Watch out D.V.A.L., they'll be back next year.

Heidi Heinrich struts her stuff as she powers a serve over.

"That's right, We Bad!" Julie Aguiar growls at the opponent.

Left: Darcie concentrates on that rotation as Deena Walker on the right dares the opponent to hit over her!

GIRLS TENNIS NOTORIOUS NETTERS!!!

Tennis! What a racket! That's what the other tennis girls in the league probably felt when they had to go up against Concord. They had quite a year this year! Not only did they place second in league but they sent many girls to NCS! They ended with a 12 and 2 record, losing only to Northgate! The team and Mrs. Dini voted Trina Jong team captain (she was 13 and 0 in league), doubles team Rama Farr and Trina Farr most valuable, and Helena LaPlant most improved.

makes a perfect return as Tammy Blake, bottom, keeps her eye on the ball.

Amy Jones never lets the ball out of her sight.

Rama Farr's concentration helps her make contact in the center of the strings

They try!!! You have to give the varsity football team credit for that. They did win one game this year- against Benicia High!! Even though the games were far from keeping the spectators at the edge of their seats, everyone still showed up for all of the games. With a new coach and a lot of starting varsity rookies, the team had a tough time of it. But Chris Dawson and Bob Caldera made All D.V.A.L. for their defense skills! John Renner and Mike Murphy were named team captains and Bob Caldera was named most improved! Good job guys! You gave it your best!

VARSITY FOOTBALL DOES IT AGAIN!

left- Dan McKechnie goes back to pass as, left, Marc Williams dazzles the opponents defense

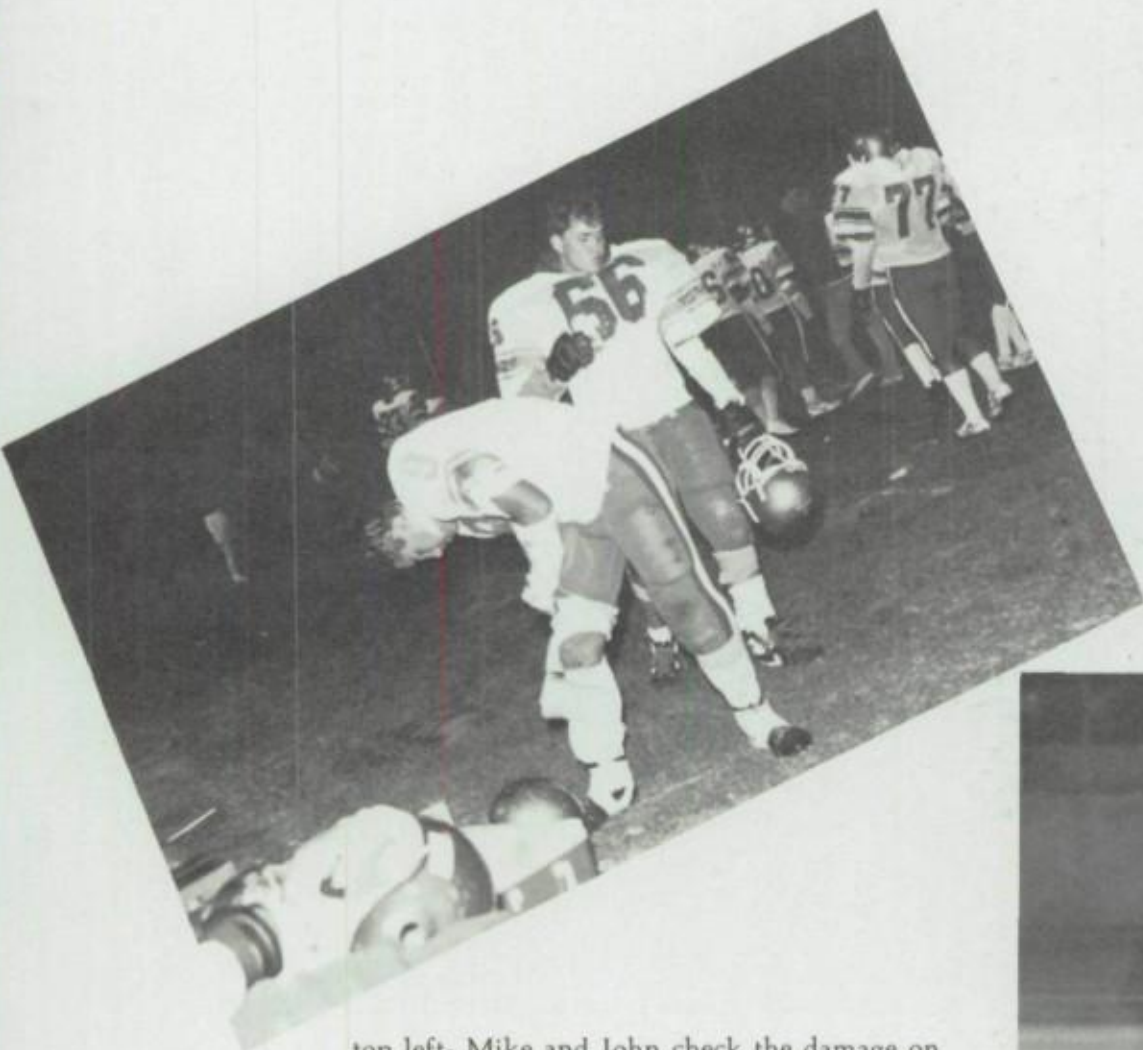

"But mom it hurts" cries Paul Trette.

Andre Vogel uses his clever moves to break away from the defense.

right- Mike Murphy makes an incredible sack.

THAT'S INCREDIBLE!! UNDEFEATED J.V.

Watch out next years D.V.A.L., the UNDEFEATED J.V.'s are movin' up!! Dominating the league this year, our J.V. team never lost a game! They had many exciting games and usually ended up winning by at least 15 points. They are going to bring a lot of skill and determination up to varsity next year which could be just what they needed. The high point of the season was when they came up against Clayton- and ended up killing them to win the title! We expect great things from you in the years to come!!!!!!

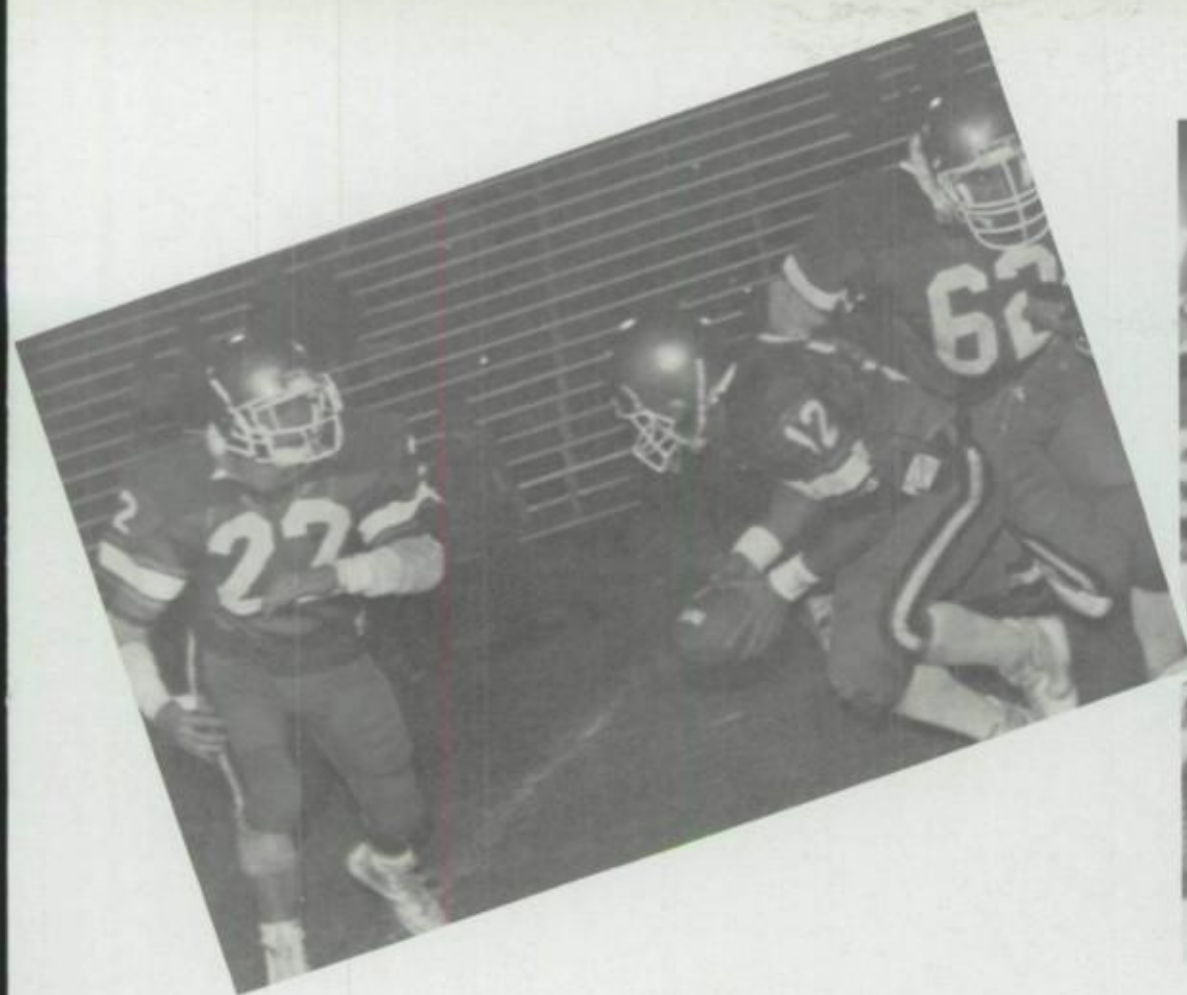

Rick Lobsinger pushes his way through the line!

FROSH

Rodney Knox takes off and breezes past the defense.

Yes, Frosh football was history in the making this year!!!! A Concord football team going undefeated? Never heard of. But the class of 90's boys pulled it off. Sometimes bringing in bigger crowds than varsity did, the frosh entertained the crowd and put on a great show. Most of the games were won by more than ten points because our guys' skill and power was too much for the rest of the DVAL to handle. We should expect great things from these guys in the next few years. We're all proud of you frosh!!

THEY'RE

The jokers smile for the camera instead of paying attention to the game.

Mike Akin gets ready to hike that ball,

CROSS COUNTRY COMES ALIVE!!!

Varsity Cross Country had a great season this year. Their league record was 6 and 1 and they won two tournaments; their own (The Bob McGuire), and San Ramon. At The Ed Sias they placed 3rd. The team, coached by Mr. Bruce, was lead by Seniors Blaise Stojkov and Don Strong, their junior star Steve Zirkelbach, and Juniors Todd Grisanti and Dan Primus. Next year definitely looks promising for the varsity team.

Minutemen Don Strong, Todd Grisanti and Dan Primus are ready in a "minute" to pull ahead!

The Junior Varsity, Frosh-Soph's, and the Girls' team also did awesome this year. Most of the time they didn't have enough runners to complete a team but that didn't stop them. The J.V.'s were lead by Ron Pagnalinin and the Frosh-Soph's had plenty of talent to really help J.V. and Varsity next year. Girls Christine Seghers and Jenny Stuart hung in their despite their small number. All the team's had a very good season and really represented C.H.S.!!!!!!

Not only is the Big Mac the leader of the pack but so are Don Strong, Todd Grisanti, Dan Primus and Rick Thall

With Blazing speed, Blaise Stojkov blazes in front of Northgate runners

Above; "The J.V. 's", Ron Pangilinan, Scott Presta, Nick Berezich, Rick France, Howard Walmsley, Tommy Goehring

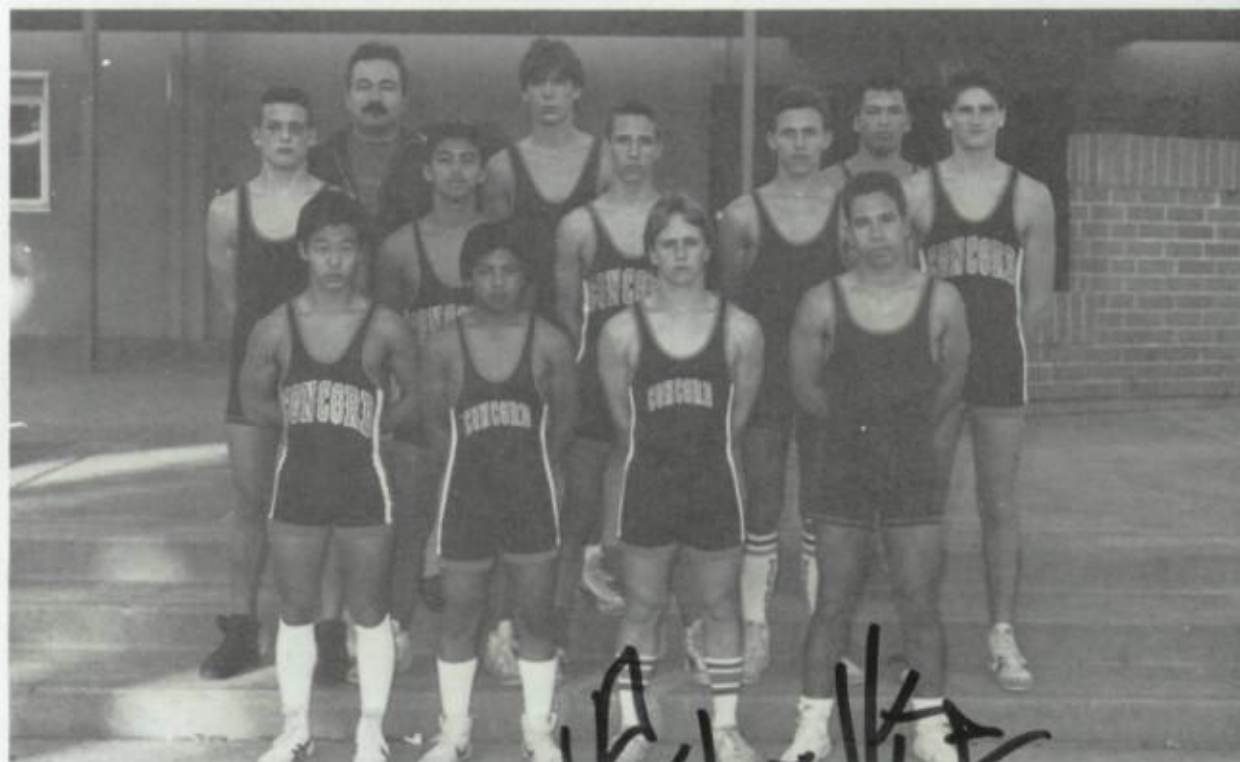

Left; "I think I can, I think I can!" exclaims Joey Dean as he dashes to the finish.

CONCORD WRESTLING

Concord High wrestling had high hopes for a great season this year with new coach Rick Vallasquez. When they lost Vallasquez, they lost some of their spirit too. But Coach Lobsinger is trying to regain the spirit in a hope that the team will do better this year.

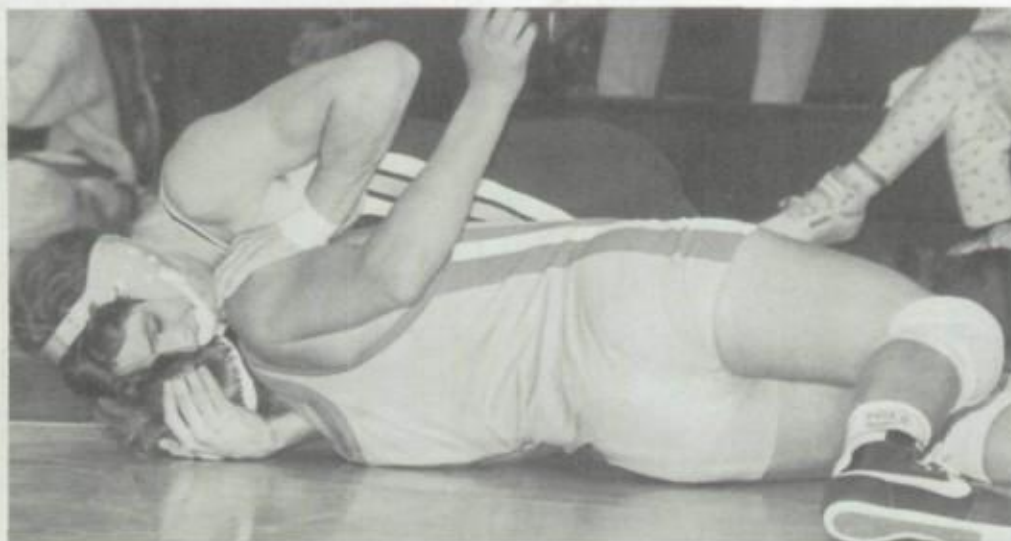

Varsity Wrestling

J.V. Wrestling

Charles Hernandez breaks his man down and works for a pin.

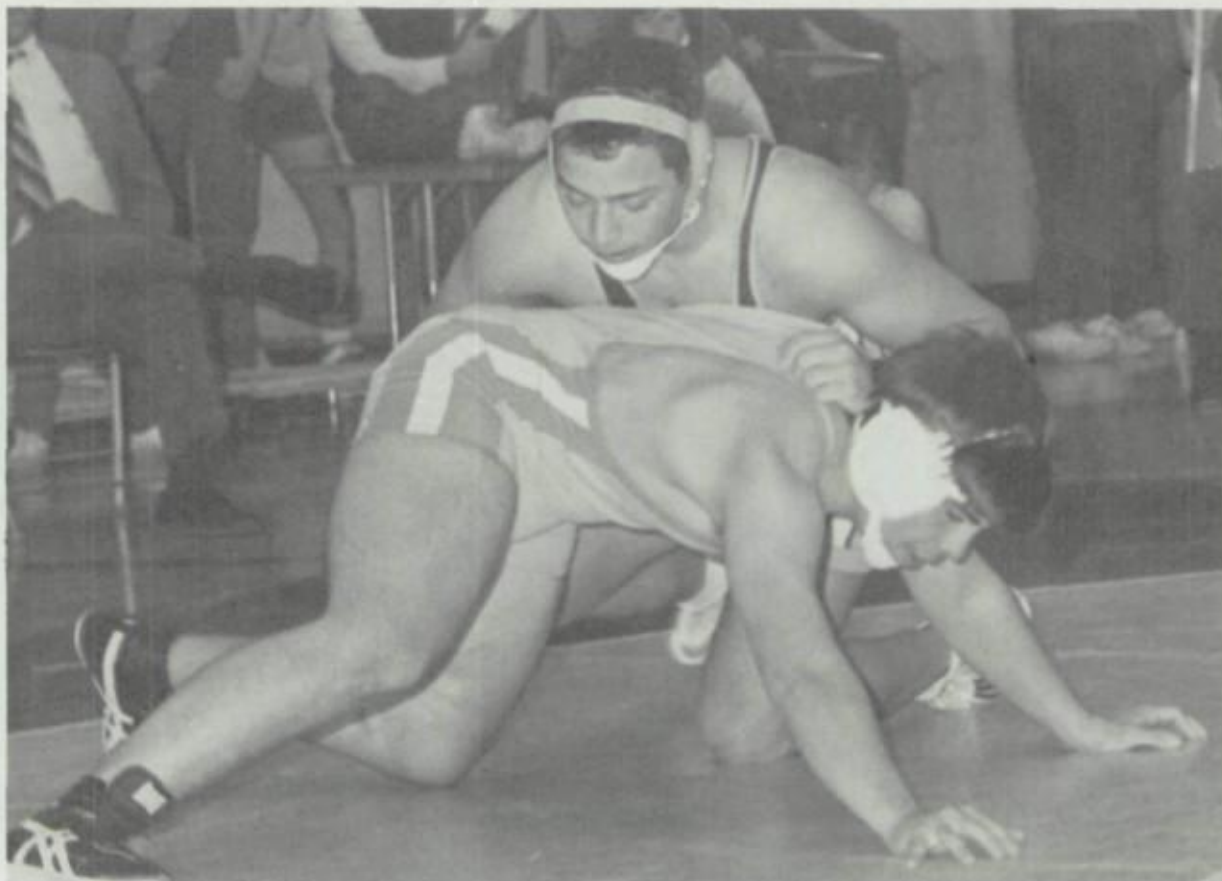

Shawn Gomez prepares to pin his YV opponent "chest to chest".

Marty Miller cradles his man for a pin. "Six points for Concord".

Rob Freitas breaking out of the handle of a Y.V. opponent.

Bottom right: Marty Miller fighting for a two point take down.

Bottom center: Darrell Fowler taking advantage of the top position.

BOYS SOCCER FIRST TIME'S A CHARM!

Dale Strawn really gets that leg action into it.

"Aw come on guys, we've only gone over that play a million times in practice," the coach exclaims.

Top: Tony Travis, Corey Okubu, Tony Hamilton, Christian Norgaard, Wendell Wecter, Keefe O'toole, Matt Shuck, Sean Brophy, Eli Gilbert, Azim Ahmady, Kneeling - Mike Aquire, Scott Martin, Chuck Revell, Shawn McMulloch, Lon Hyatt, Dale Strawn, Joey Hattrup, Rob Jess, not pictured, Blaise Stojkov Kamika Sherwood.

An experiment! That's what this years' soccer teams were. No one was sure what kind of crowds they would draw. But over 50 guys turned out for tryouts. All of them had had many years experience playing in the many leagues in Concord. This made competition fierce. All of the guys that survived were extremely talented and it showed in their playing. The first year of soccer was a big hit and its popularity will ensure strong teams in future years.

GIRLS SOCCER

Starting A New Tradition!

l to r; Connie Wettstein, Molly McGlynn, Stella Ngai, Carol Fobian, Steph Thiel, Suzy Lowe, Joanne Roninson, Janine Hager, Melissa Larkin, Shannon Chryst, Adrienne Jackett, Kenya Collins, Amy Johnson, Jennifer Seybolt, Danielle Bullock

Concord's first soccer season was a challenge for both coaches and players. Everyone was very talented but it took a while for the individual players to learn to work together. Once they did though, the results were impressive for a young team. Leaders included George Wheable (head coach), Bunny Wheable (assistant coach), and Carol Fobian (team captain). Girls soccer looks forward to an even stronger year next year with virtually every team member returning for the next season.

"There you are, get back here!"

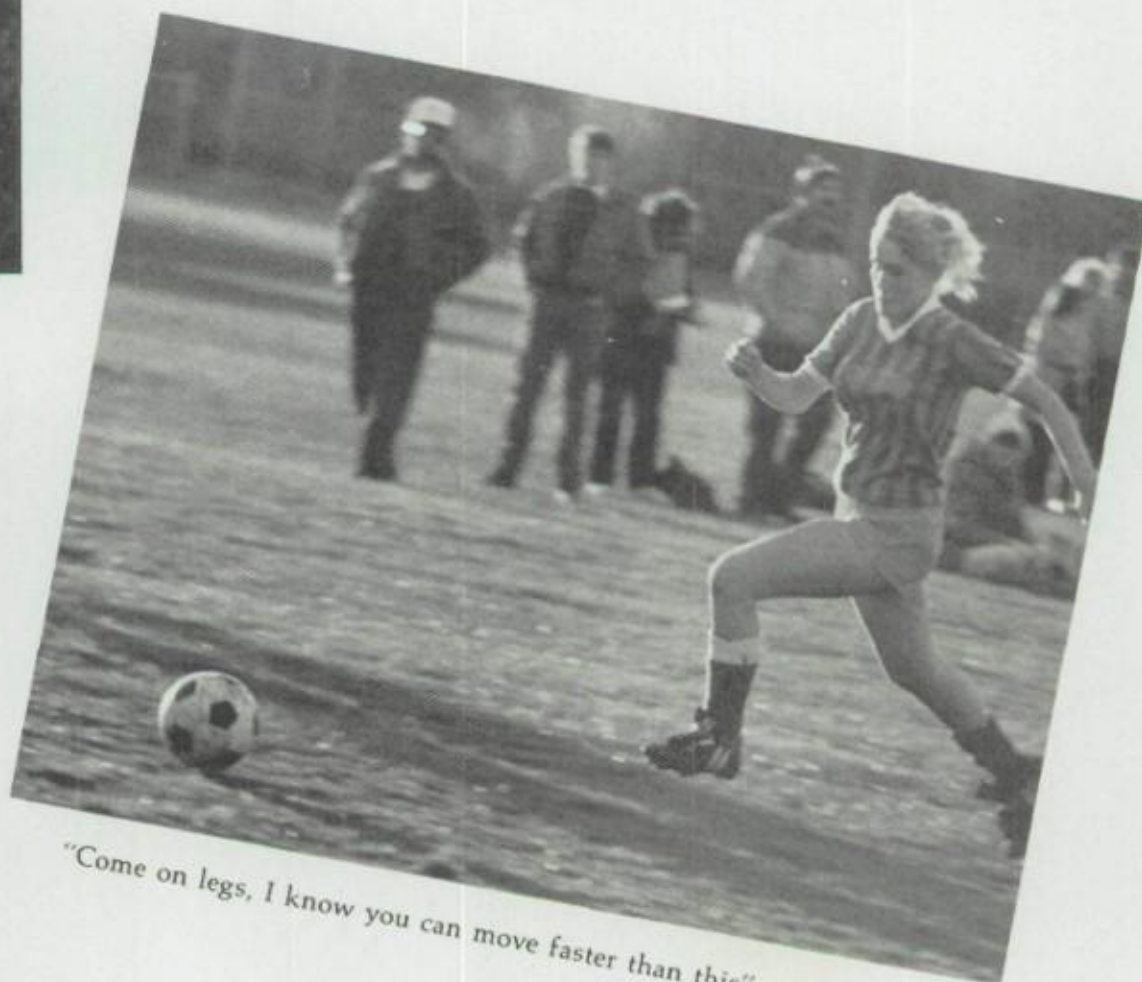

Buffie Stolarczyk gives it her best shot!

"Oh come on ref, what are you talking about!" complains Stephanie Thiel.

The spirit of this team is definitely showing here with their encouragement to each other.

"Come on legs, I know you can move faster than this" growls Carol.

THEY'RE PLAYIN' BASKETBALL!!!!

"Coach call a time out, I have to go to the bathroom pleeeasee!"

"Here Coach, maybe you can do something with the ball, I dont want this guy breathing down my neck."

"Okay fellas, now this is how it be!", exclaims coach Klarer.

I walk into the gym, crowds screaming wildly, cheerleaders jumping frantically, and for a split second, I think I'm watching the Harlem Globetrotters. But then I wake up! Well they impressed me with their warm-ups, the music, and the shooting shirts sporting their studly nicknames. When the game starts their style does resemble the globetrotters but I think they lacked the height! No really, our guys did do an impressive job this year. With the leadership of Jeffro and Gary and the incredible skills of Mark Williams the guys really had a fun time doing what they like to do best - shoot hoop.

Above: "Come back to mama," whines Derek as he grabs for the ball. Top right: "Man, that glue I was using in art class isn't helping me on the court," says Mark Williams. Right: "How scary, I'm not used to being up this high, put me down now!" cries Paul Trette.

J.V. HOOPSTERS

The Team; l to r: Ron Pagninlinan, Phil Good, Brad Hunt, Chris Bowerbank, Murray Feiler, Mike Chambers, John Gartner, Ed Ferguson, Steve April, Dave Moser, Mike Russell.

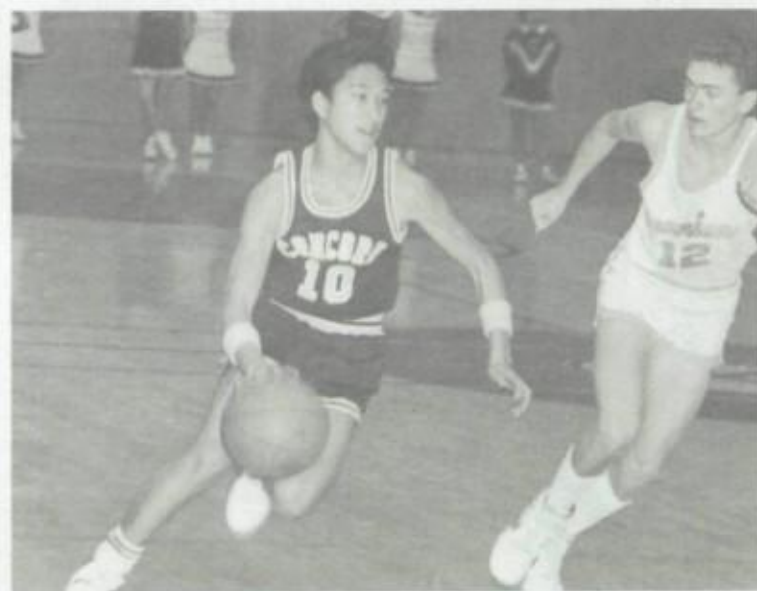

Everyone watches Mike Chambers as he begins to change into the Incredible Hulk.

"You're all mine!!", exclaims Chris Bowerbank.

Usually it's hard to get the crowds out there to watch the J.V.'s play, but that's just what our guys did this year. They dazzled the crowds with their exciting games that were always close to the finish. Every guy on the team played a lot and they all had incredible ball handling skills and a great shot. Its obvious that these guys will be able to impress us all next year as varsity stars.

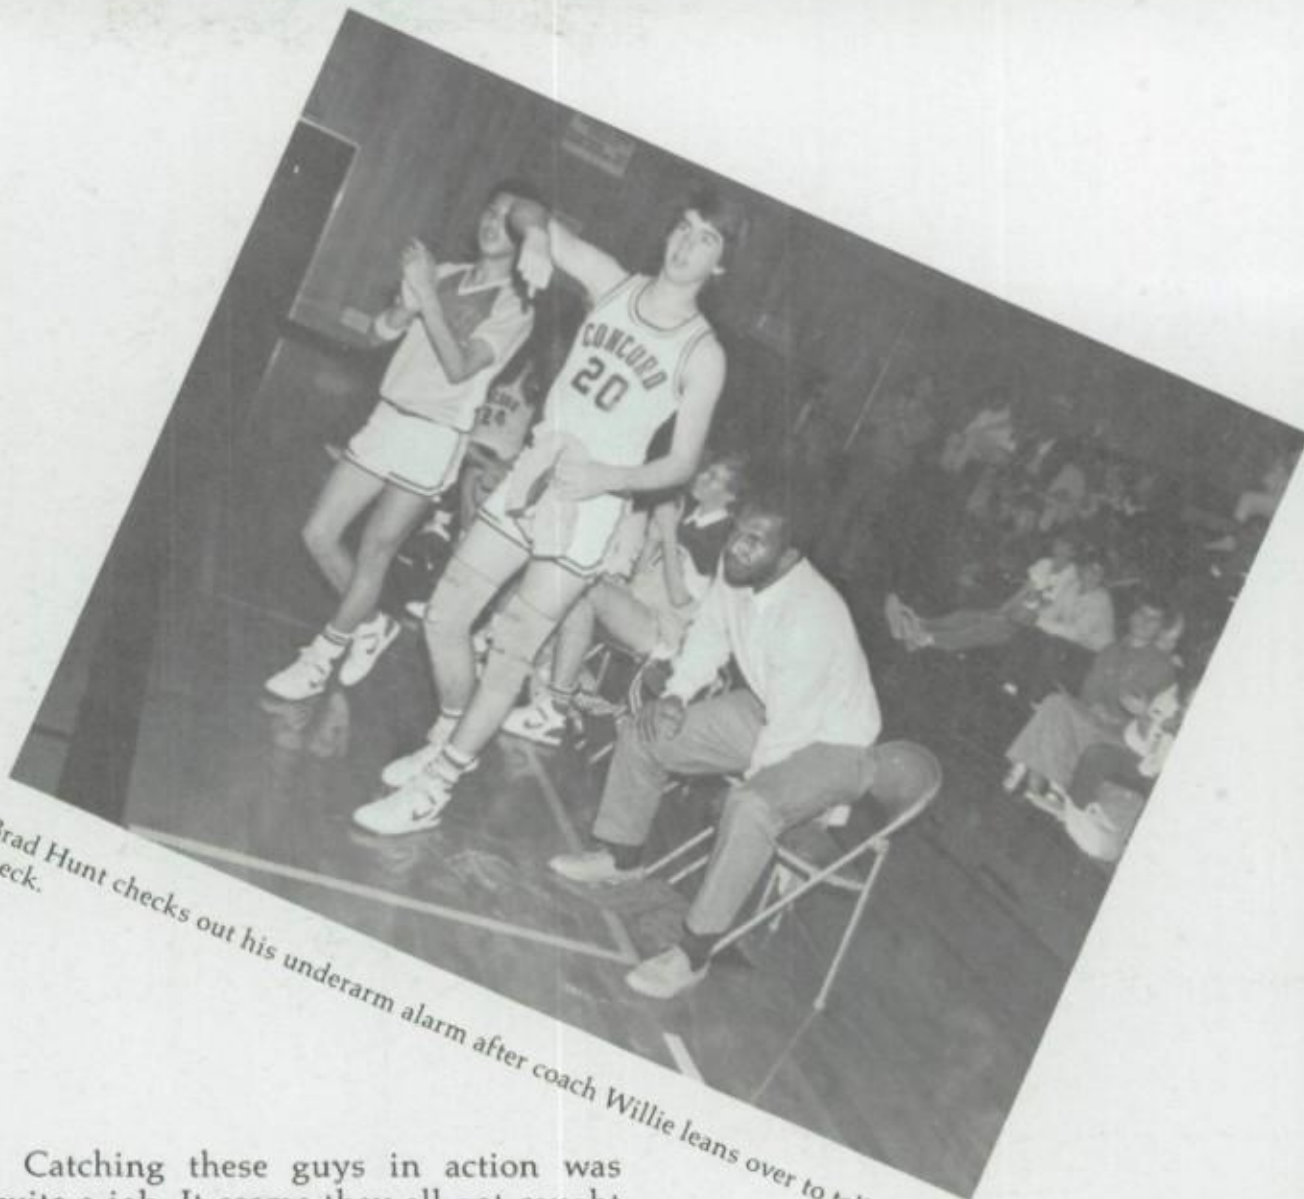

Left: Brad Hunt makes a perfect shot and waves at the camera at the same time.

GOIN' ALL THE WAY

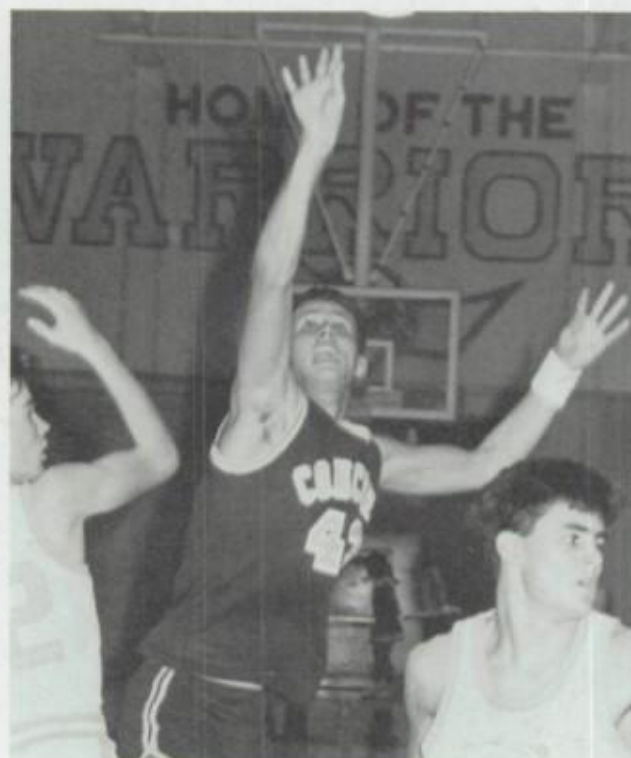

"The Thinker", Lee Aston contemplates the meaning of the word Hoop.

Brad Hunt checks out his underarm alarm after coach Willie leans over to tell him to check.

Mike Russell sings out "I've got the rebound" in his opera style.

Phil Good makes an incredible shot and follows in, up, and over the other guys for the rebound.

Dave Moser shows us the true meaning of the word Slamming Machine.

FROSH HOOP

The Choice Of A New Generation

Being a freshman isn't an easy task. But it makes it a lot easier if you are a studly frosh basketball player. All of the guys came out with a lot of experience - either playing at their intermediate school or playing for a recreational league. Having all of this talent sure didn't make it easy for the coach to pick and choose. But he made a good choice and the guys sure played up to his standards. Having the height and shot of Eric Rheaume and the ball handling skills of Jason Omania along with the best bench ever recorded in history, the frosh guys sure did a great job this year. We should all feel sorry for the J.V. and varsity coaches in the future - how are they going to choose?

The Squids; l to r; Jason Omania, David Barr, Jim Baker, Tyson Allen, Rob Rugani, Marcus Tolibas, Tommy Goehring, Ricky France, Eric Rheaume, Bill Hester, Dennis Meyer, Chris Cobbs, Mike April.

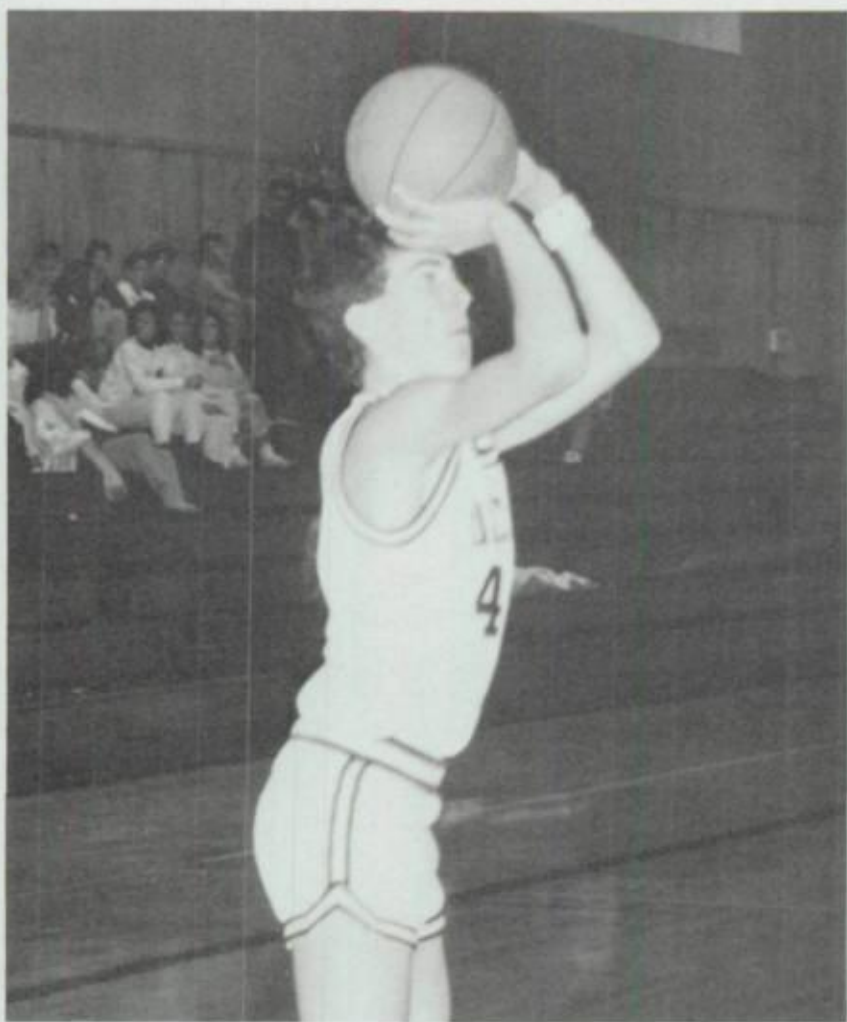

"Yea I bet you want the ball!", Tommy laughs at the opponent.

"Here you go, I gotta go, my moms calling me", says Jim Baker.

VARSITY HOOP HEADED

A lot of people (especially chauvanistic males) feel that girls athletics are far from exciting. In other words Boring!!! But this years varsity basketball team proved them wrong. Part of the reason was the enthusiasm from the bench. You could always hear screams and cheers from the bench. The girls also played with high intensity and a good attitude. It took a lot to get the girls down and they always stuck it out till the end. The team will be losing five seniors but will be gaining more than they can handle from the J.V.s next year.

The Team: l to r: Lynette Odegaard, Gwen Dense, Stephanie Hoeft, Stephanie Strawn, Kelli Reasor, Kelly Emerton, Julie Aguir, Emily Lo, Nicole Babbiste

Stephanie Strawn keeps up with inter-team relations holding hands with an opponent.

"Yea right Ms. Jentzen, whatever you say! Lynette exclaims.

GIRLS FOR THE NBA?

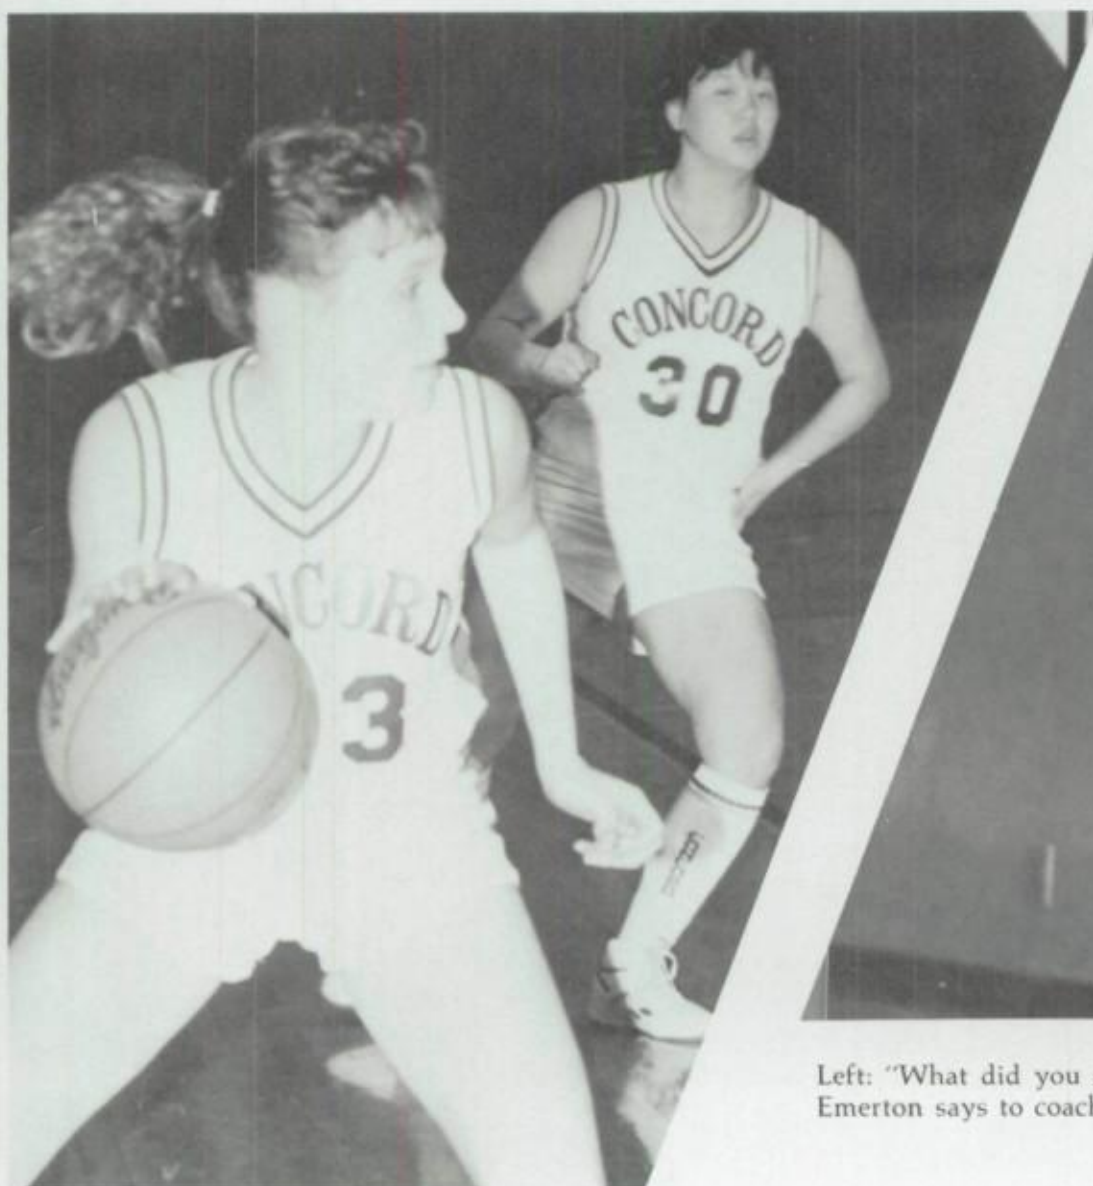

Look at that follow through Lynette Odegaard possesses.

"Ow, the ball is hot," Gwen Dense says.

Bottom right: "No silly thats not the way you shoot a free throw", Kelly Reasor informs the other team.

Left: "What did you say?, I wasn't paying attention? I'm trying to play basketball!" Kelly Emerton says to coach Jentzen.

J.V. AND FROSH BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

"You want it, come and get it!"

left to right Jen Laughlin, Julie Stevenson, Jennifer Stuart, Irma Cuevas, Kristin Miller, Inge Christian, Kirsten Seable, Angela Dobins.

Below: "Look at what we have here!" Jen Laughlin exclaims.

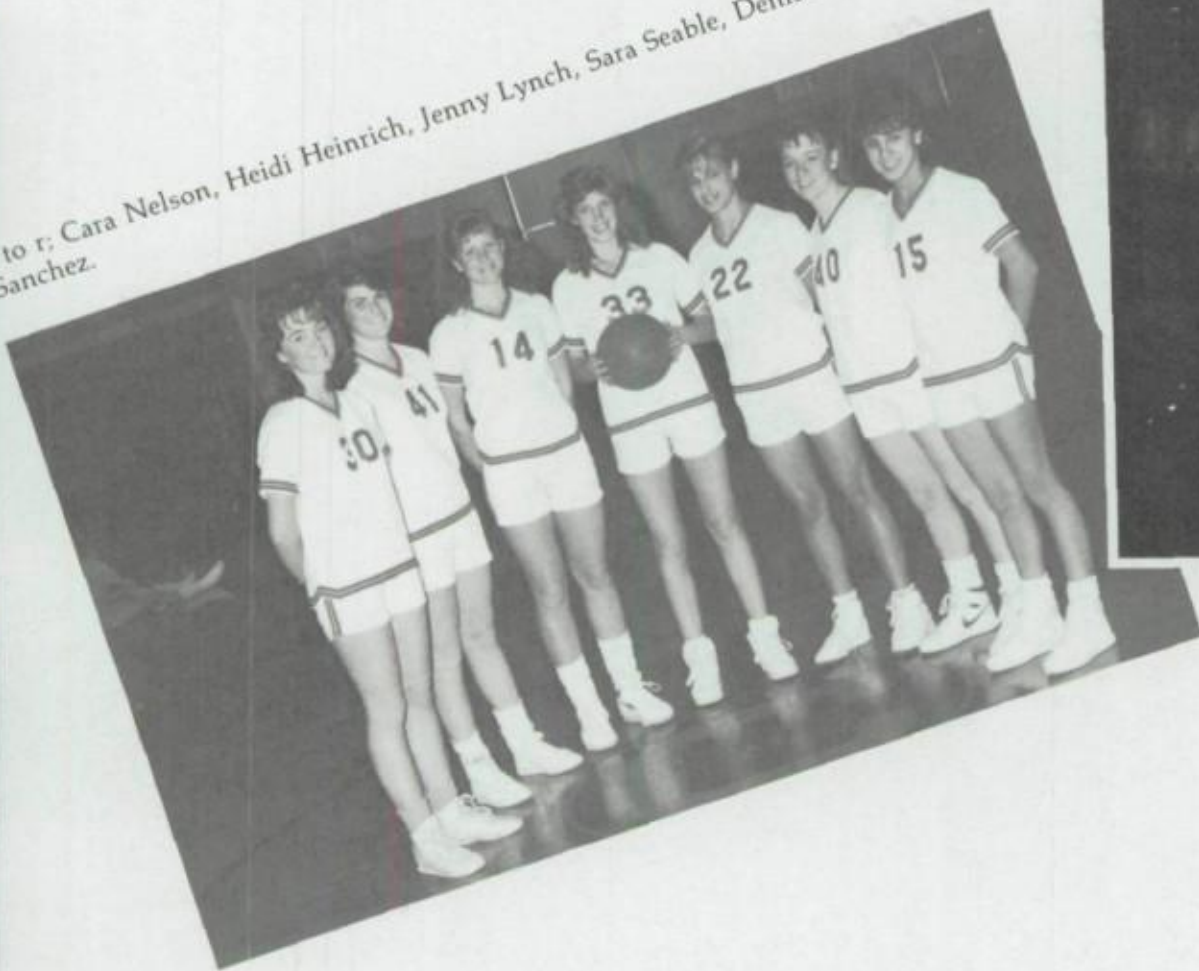

"Oh dear, that hoop is soooo high up there, how am I ever going to make it."

How many girls are on a basketball court? Oh five - well that sometimes was a hard task for coach Mary Jon Penovich to do. The J.V. girls basketball team was small in number, but that didn't stop them at all. These girls were incredible, they tried so hard and were the most determined team ever. It's hard to build a team around all new players and also relying on all sophomores and juniors - now that the frosh have their own team. But Mary Jon has done a great job, you can bet these girls are in great shape (and sick of jumping rope too!). Miss Jentzen is going to have her hands full next year!!!!!!

to r; Cara Nelson, Heidi Heinrich, Jenny Lynch, Sara Seable, Denise Walker, Lisa Sanchez.

Have you ever seen such a layup?

Lisa Sanchez gets down low as she cruises down the court . .

Below: Heidi Heinrich handles that ball with perfection.

What's that out there on the court? A girls' freshman basketball team? They finally decided to try it this year. It's obviously working out quite well! Most of the girls had some experience playing on the El Dorado team or another league so coach Wendy Weber wasn't starting from scratch. The girls learned quickly and worked hard (of course, they had to or they could just take off and start running around the court). The idea of a girls' frosh basketball team was a great idea and we will probably be seeing even better quality basketball in the future because of the extra experience the girls are getting their freshman year. Good job girls - you made the first year very impressive.

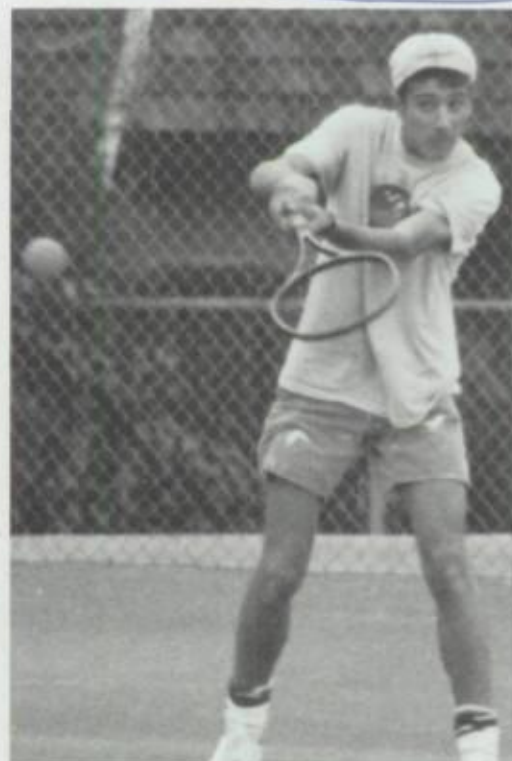

Top left: "Don't even try it," growls Paul Trette, next: Christine Seghers cruises to the finish just barely in front of Don Strong, who is catching up fast.

CONCORD SWIMMERS MAKE A SPLASH

This years swim team did exceptionally well. They were expected to place in the top two teams in the DVAL and the top five in the North Coast Section. The girls team captains are Melissa Ponti and Imelda Cuevas, and the boys team captains are Sean Harrison and D'Arcy Dornan. The girls team only lost two girls from last year and have gained a lot of new talent for this year. They were a dominant force in the league. The boys have lost a lot of swimmers from last years graduating class, but still have done a great job at placing top in the league again.

This year's varsity baseball team was one of the most hard working group of guys around. Part of it was because Coach Luoma pushed them to the limit and made them work 110% at all times. The team had a lot of returners, especially pitcher Dave Eakin, but the infield experienced some switching around. Jeff Leontini moved to third base, and Sean McGlynn to second. The team did super this year and can expect great things next year from pitcher Rob Callistro, first baseman Tony Dress, and shortstop Gregg Adams.

Starting off the year with quite a few returners sure did help Coach Klarer this year. It also helped to have talented freshmen come out to play. With returners like Eric Leil, new frosh like pitcher Dave Barr, and infield Jason Omania, it's easy to say that the team did well this year. The new pitching cage helped a lot in practicing and we can expect great things from these guys next year on varsity.

VARSIITY SOFT

This year's girls varsity softball team came back this year with almost all seniors. With all of this talent and experience what can you expect? Especially when you combine three of the best coaches around- Bob Rose, Cal Porter, and George Wheable! The girls were always having a good time laughing and joking around. Of course when it came to playing it was no joke. If you were standing in the quad, you could hear the girls yelling and screaming in the dugout and always shouting encouragement to pitcher Debra Samudio and to the other girls in their infield as well as to the batters. Losing most of the team is going to a little tough next year but with all of the talent from J.V., they will be able to cover all of their bases very well.

"I got it, I got it," yells Carol Fobian.

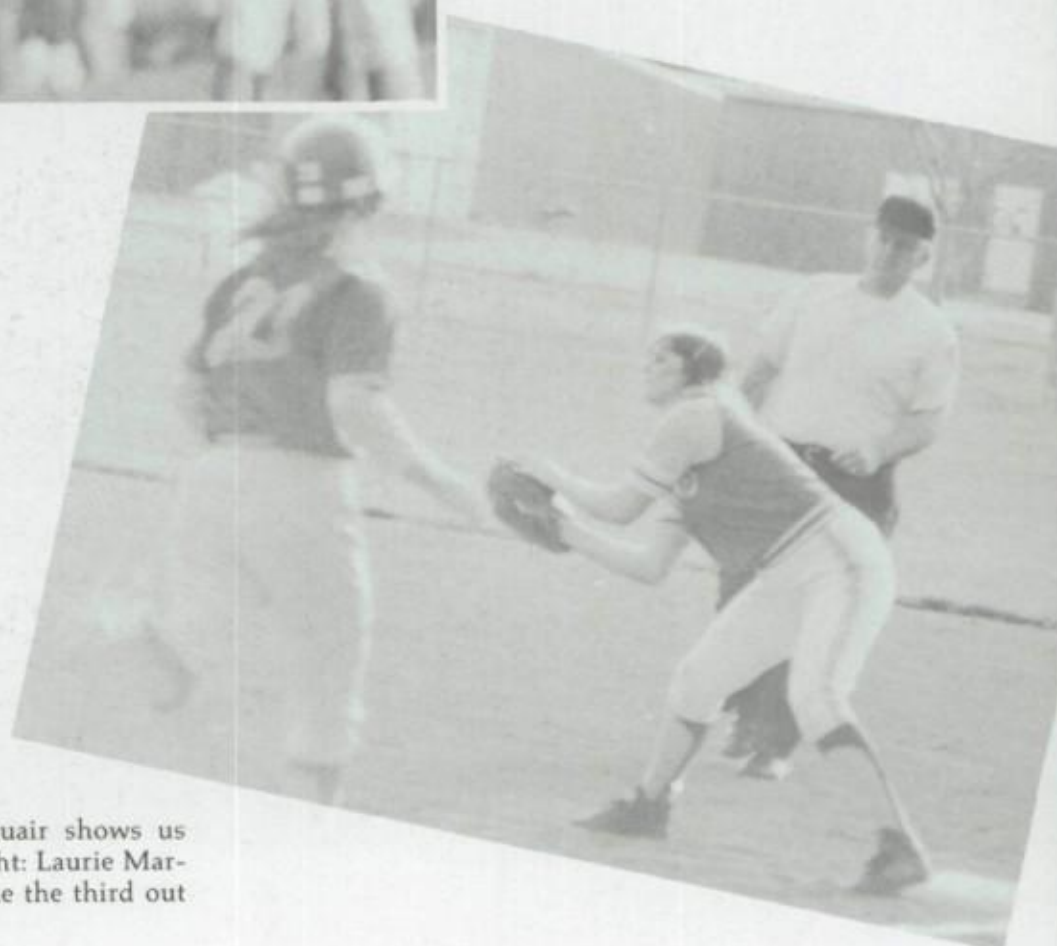

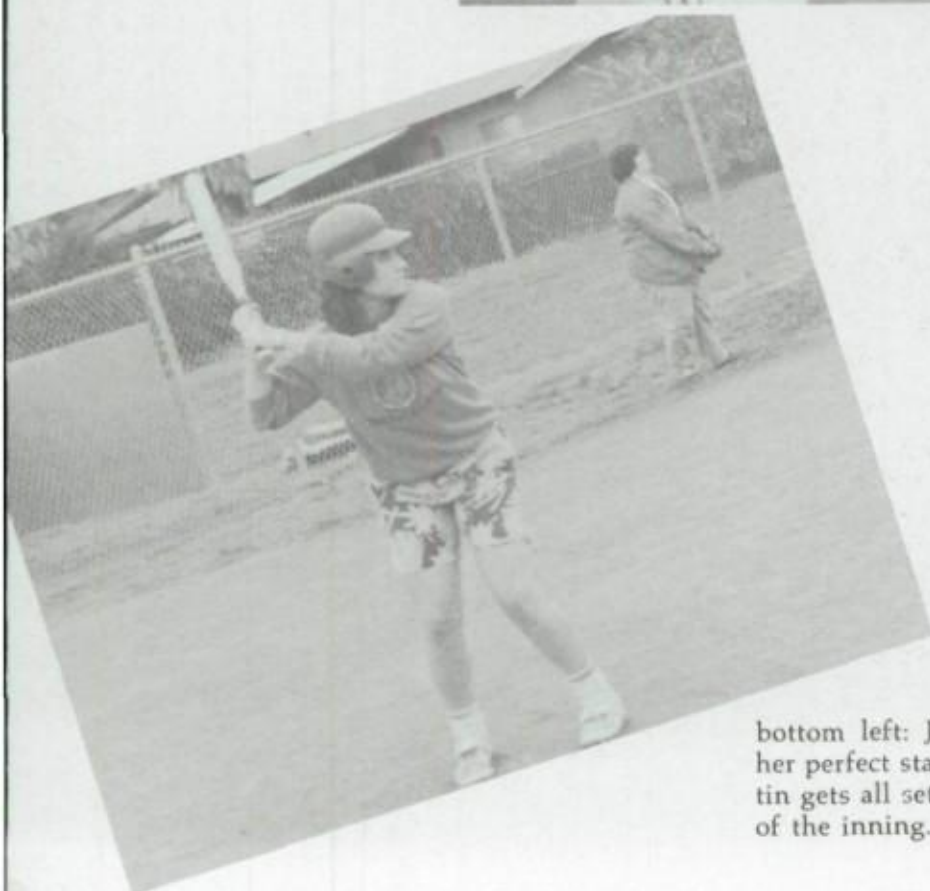

top left: Kelly Emerton gets sly as she plots how she's going to steal third.

BALL

bottom left: Julie Aguir shows us her perfect stance. right: Laurie Martin gets all set to make the third out of the inning.

The J.V. Softball team got a couple of new things this year. One thing was a new coach, ex varsity catcher Bunny Wheable, and the other thing was a brand new set of players. Bunny whipped the girls in shape fast and they really learned a lot. The team had the awesome pitching of frosh Darcie King and many other frosh who made up the majority of the team. The great experience they got this year will really help varsity next year when they lose most of the team. A lot of girls will be moving up but the ones who remain on j.v. will be great leaders and help the new players along to another great season.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL?? . . . PROVES TO BE POPULAR

The first year is always an experiment when you start with a new sport. It's especially difficult when you take a bunch of guys (because guys aren't the most coordinated people) and try to teach them volleyball. Most of them are used to "jungle ball" that they have played in p.e., so Ms. Jentzen had her work cut out for her when she entered the gym and saw about fifty or so guys standing around ready to start learning volleyball from scratch. She did her best of teaching them the basics and they turned out to be very impressive players. Taking one regular team and one taxi team will really prepare the guys for next years' season when we can look forward to exciting games with experienced players.

TRACK; TAKING THE HEAT...

As I went out to take pictures of the track team this year, I decided to catch them at practice instead of at a meet. I always thought that when a person was running, they were in pain, and it showed in their face. Most runners look like their about to die. But every time I snapped a picture, someone was smiling!! I thought this was great and showed that the team was really having a lot of fun.

Above; Dean Strawn and company speed onward in chase of imaginary girls.

Concord High almost went without a track team this year. For some reason they had a really hard time finding a head coach. Finally, Mr. Lob-singer decided he would do it. Then they had a hard time getting runners to try out! Eventually everything fell into place and team began working out and really getting into shape. Despite their late start and the shortage of runners, the track team did a great job this year and made us proud.

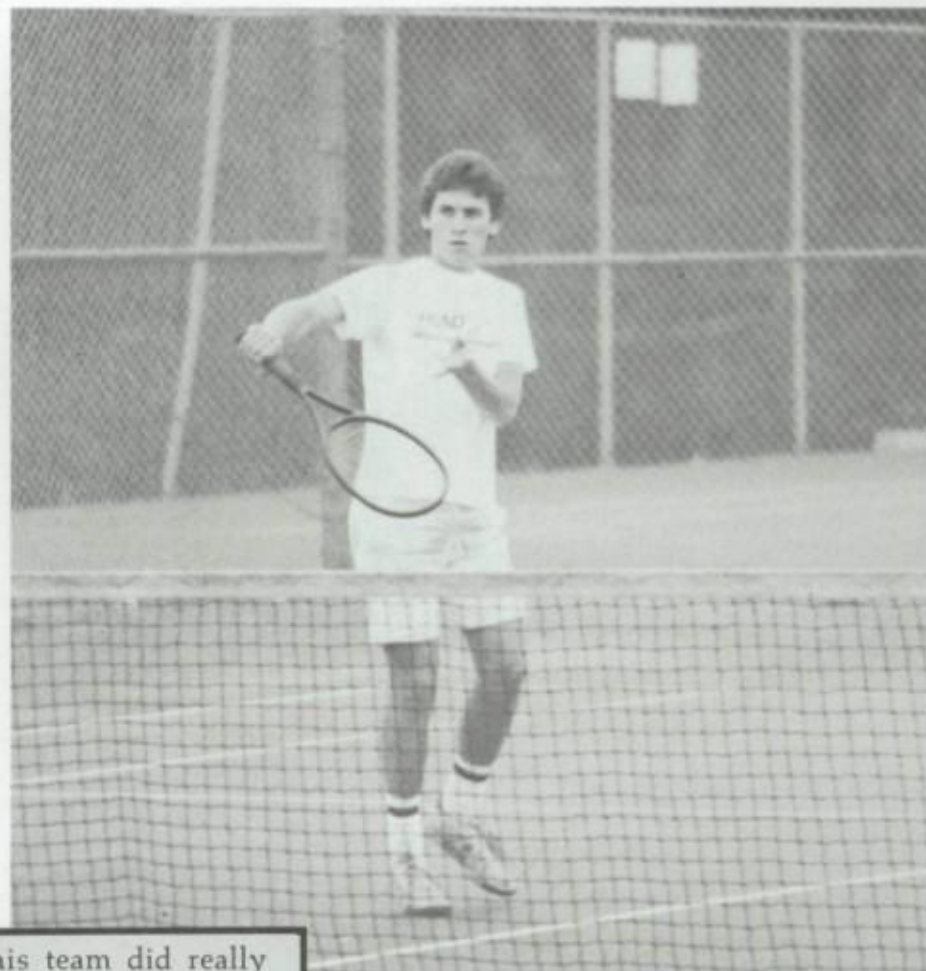

Distance runner Steve Zirkelbach stretches out and displays his interesting, but ugly shoes.

Right; Dave Lampton gracefully glides over those hurdles. Below; Corey Triggs' idea of a worm-up stretch.

BOYS TENNIS

The boys tennis team did really well this year with virtually every player from last year returning for another season. This year's team was led by strong performances from all of the players but particularly from Keefe O'Toole, Klay Nicholas, Dan Dickinson, and Brad Currie. Coach Chlarson continued his tradition of buying ice cream for all the players if they won their match. After slaughtering Pittsburg, you can expect to find Concord's tennis team pigging out at the local Baskin-Robbins. Boys tennis looks forward to even stronger years as the tennis team continues to mature and improve.

GIRLS SPORT, HERE AT C.H.S.

The rivalry ended on November 26, 1986. On this day the SENIORS let the Juniors know who's the class with class. Both teams practiced with desire to win and to defeat their opponents. Both the Juniors and Seniors were syched for the game. Imelda Cuevas, Emily Lo, and Kelly Waters played a strong part of the Junior team. Tracy Badger and Molly McKereghan played tough for the Seniors, while Debbie Crabtree scored the only touchdown of the game. The Juniors inexperience gave the Seniors dominance of the football field. The final score was 7-0, with the Senior class of 1987 winning for the second year in a row.

Special Olympics provides year-round sport training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports. Concord High School fields a bowling team, ski team and track team. The varsity and J.V. bowling teams have won 1st place in their divisions.

Skiing is an individual competition in downhill and crosscountry events. CHS athletes have won Gold, Silver and Bronze metals in downhill competition. Track and Field is the biggest event of the year. Athletes compete in individual events and the relay team. The past four years, the varsity relay team has won 1st place in their division. There is a state, national and international competition in all Special Olympic sponsored sports. The following athletes have competed at the state level: Steve Boykin, Penny Ghiggeri, James Mason, Sara Malpess and Mike Leviton.

Having the honor to light the torch for the Special Olympics is Steve Boykin.

Waiting his turn for the down hill skiing tournament is Mike Leviton.

Bowling his best is James Mason.

Running her final sprint is Penny Ghiggeri.

"We're number one" is the thought of these anxiously awaiting athletes before the track and field events for County games.

"What do kids do for pleasure?" I wondered. Spying on some hip teenagers, I found them at the ski slopes in Tahoe, a favorite hobby for many people, like Dale Strawn and Steve Shern. Then there were the several beach bums, a habit easily attained in sunny California. Another favorite pasttime is just cruisin' along the streets of exciting Concord. Of course, the perpetual hobby of a teenager revolves around partying, and I found out that most kids wouldn't be able to get through the week without the promise of several parties on the weekend. All in all, kids at Concord High work hard, and play hard, but perhaps more of the latter!

DEDICATED TO EDUCATION

JAY CORTES

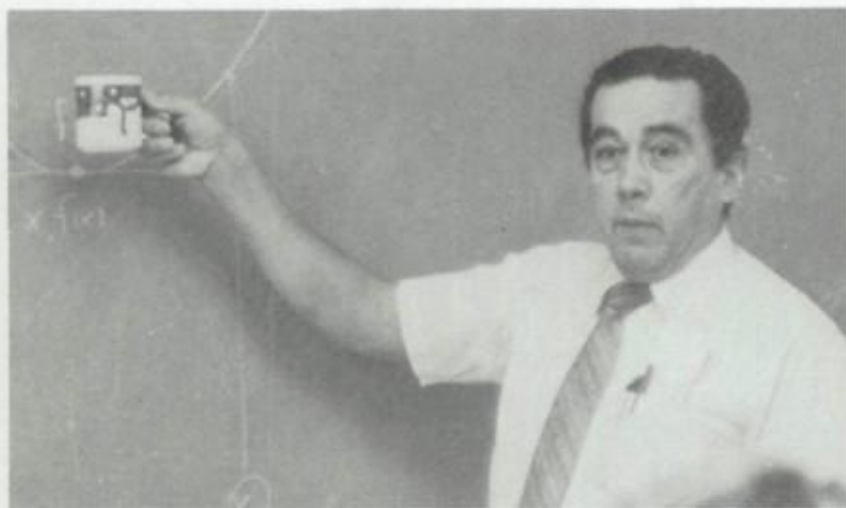

Definitely one of the best Math teachers this school has ever had is Mr. Cortes. In his own unique style, for the past 21 years at Concord High, Mr. Cortes has taught Algebra, Calculus, and everything in between.

Mr. Cortes was born and raised in San Francisco. He attended U.C. Berkeley where he majored in Physics and then did graduate work in Math.

Since Mr. Cortes and his wife, Beatrice, first met in a college Math class, they have raised four children and now have one grandchild. Mr. and Mrs. Cortes spend their vacations at a mountain cabin that Mr. Cortes built himself. In his spare time he enjoys photography, reading, and skiing.

Mr. Cortes is retiring this year and we can never thank him enough for all he's done for Concord High. We dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Cortes, with sincere gratitude for your infinite patience and your priceless sense of humor. Happy Trails!

DON LOCKYER

Mr. Lockyer has added much to Concord High School as a P.E. teacher and as a coach of our football and basketball teams.

Before coming to Concord High, Mr. Lockyer taught Social Studies and was a coach at Pleasant Hill High. He came to Concord in 1966 when the school opened and has been here ever since. In 1969 he was the coach of the undefeated football team and the Contra Costa Football All-Star team in 1972. This year Mr. Lockyer coached our undefeated Freshman Football team.

Mr. Lockyer is quite an outdoorsman. He spends much of his spare time in his favorite outdoor activities, such as fishing and golfing. Mr. Lockyer is originally from Idaho and still spends many of his vacations there. He and his wife, Kathy, have five children and three grandchildren.

The Yearbook Staff recognizes Mr. Lockyer for his 21 years of devoted service to Concord High and would like to say one last time; Thanks Mr. Lockyer!

OLYMPIC HOPEFUL

Riding a luge sled at Lake Placid, while going 60 MPH, is like driving a go-cart without breaks down a steep, icy, snake-like course on your back.

Chris Cabral

Phones are definitely popular at Concord High.

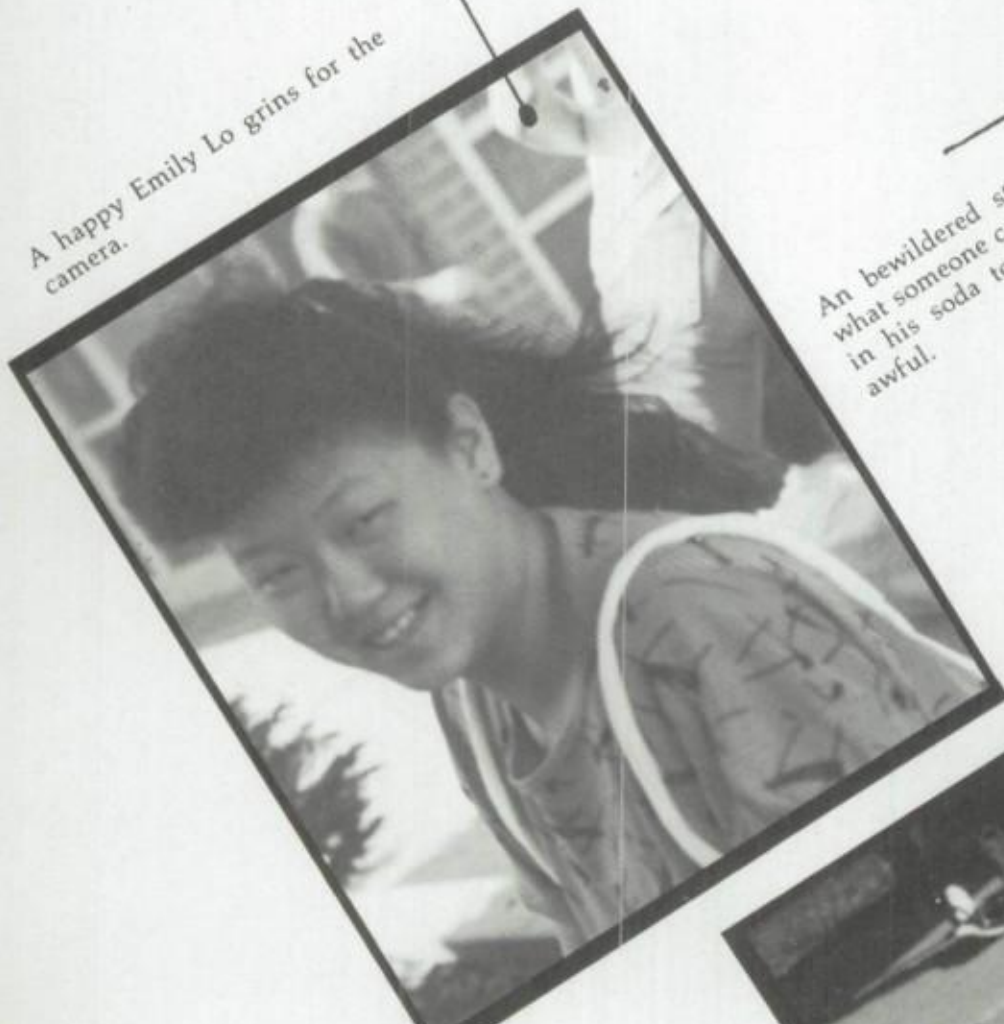

Julie Carpenter launches the frisbee.

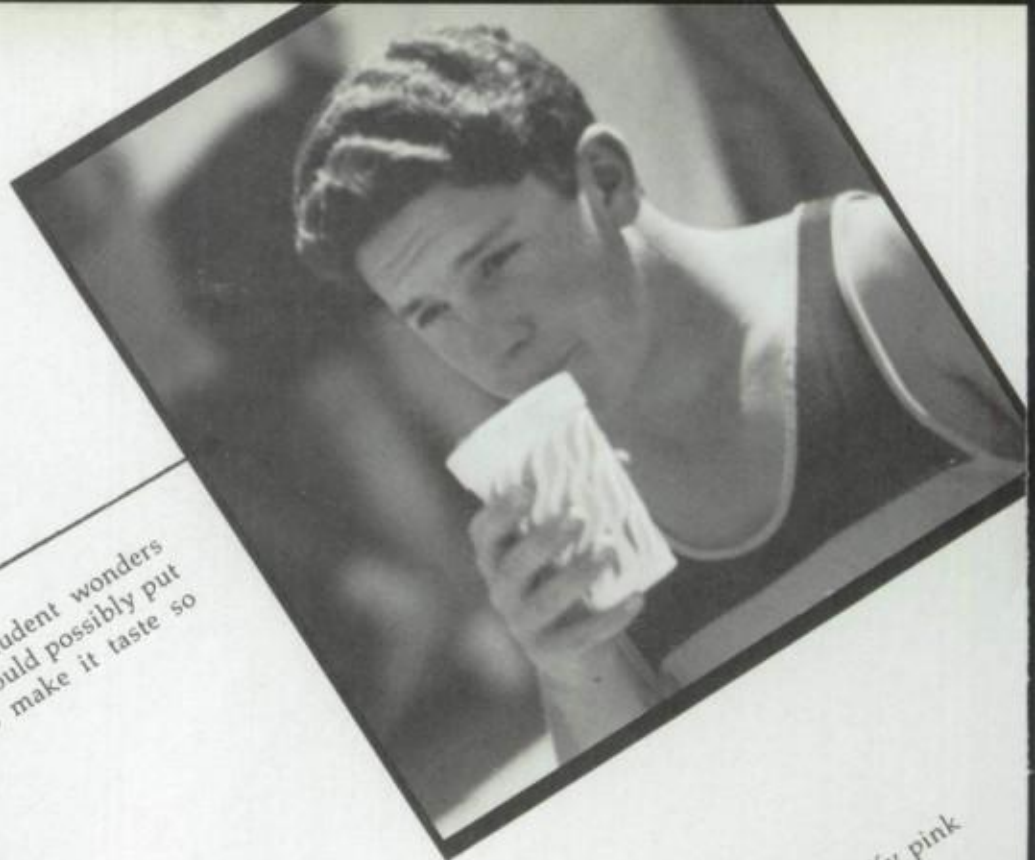

BRILLIANT

Concord Style. Pizazz.
Brilliant In Two Stylish
Senses: New Faces And
Looks Everywhere-
And Bright Sights And Ideas From Everyone.

An bewildered student wonders what someone could possibly put in his soda to make it taste so awful.

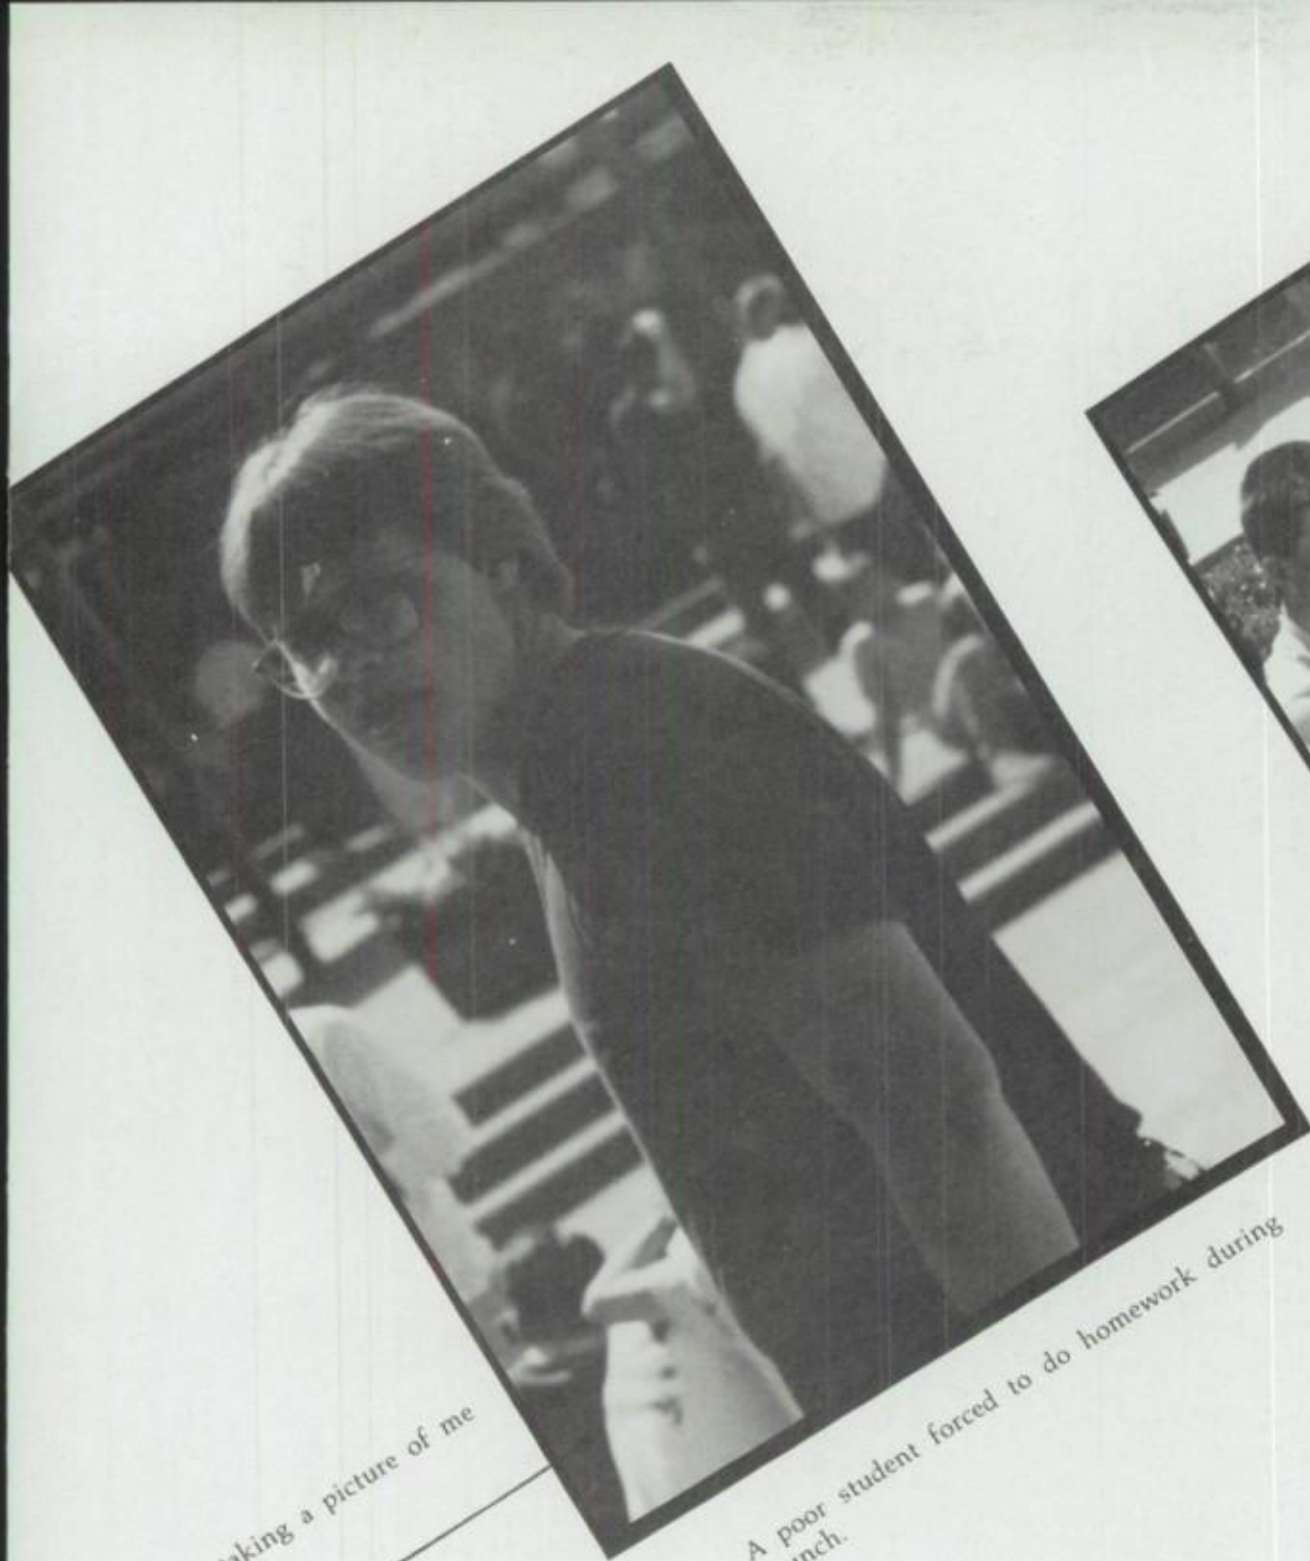

Christy Boswell models her fluffy pink jacket.

The camera catches a suprised Lisa Cotter.

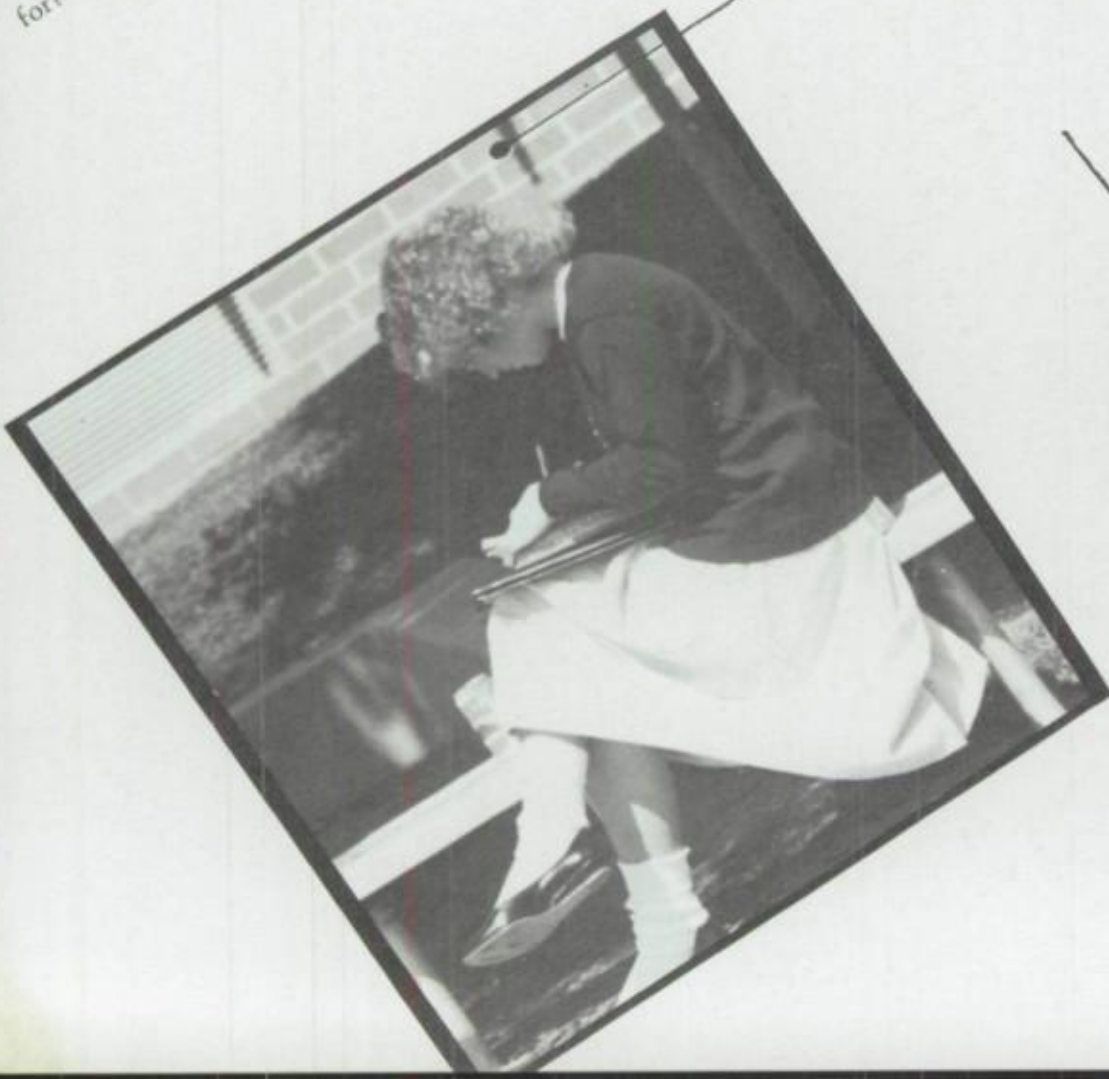

"What are you taking a picture of me for?"

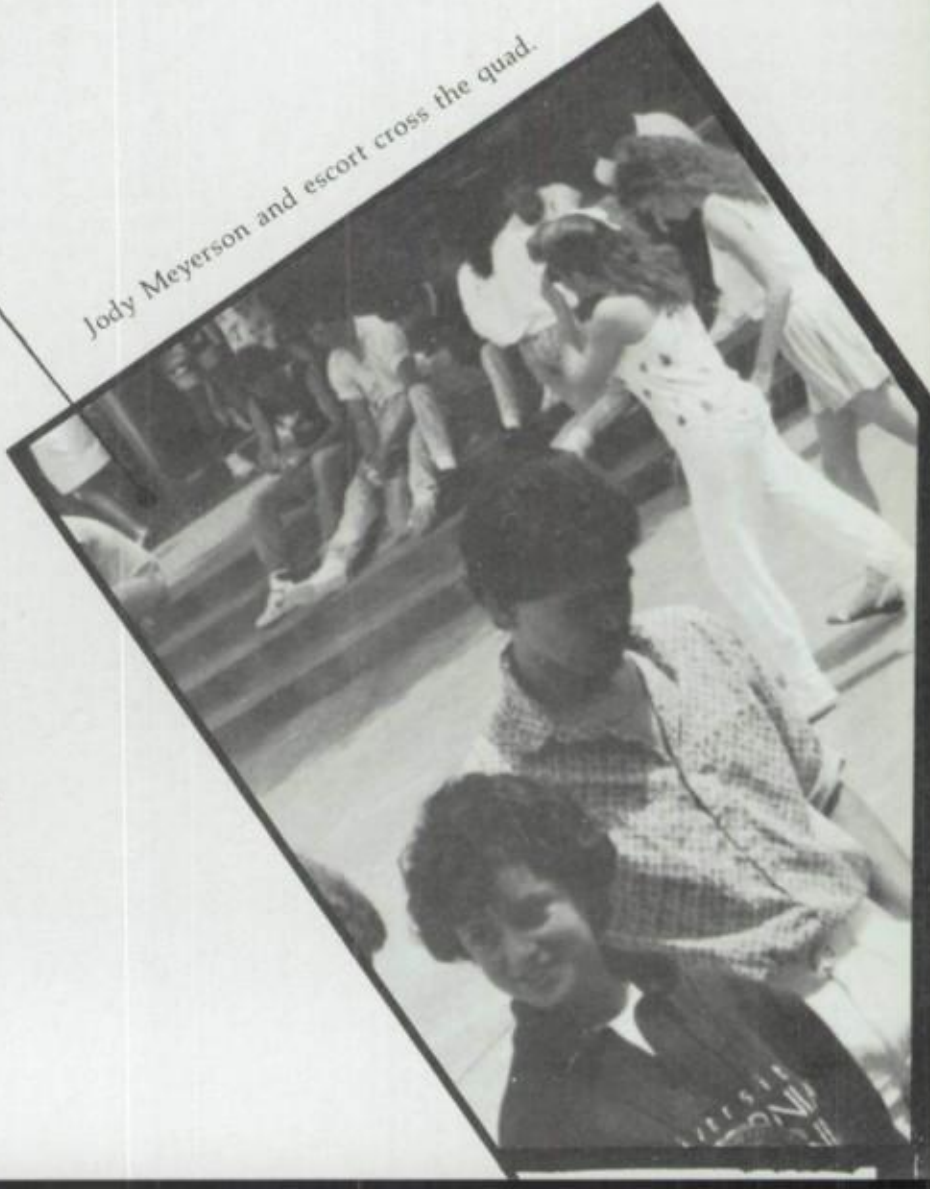

Rob Bowerbank and friends enjoy a social lunch.

A poor student forced to do homework during brunch.

Jody Meyerson and escort cross the quad.

THE CLASS

87' animals are let loose at a lunchtime rally.

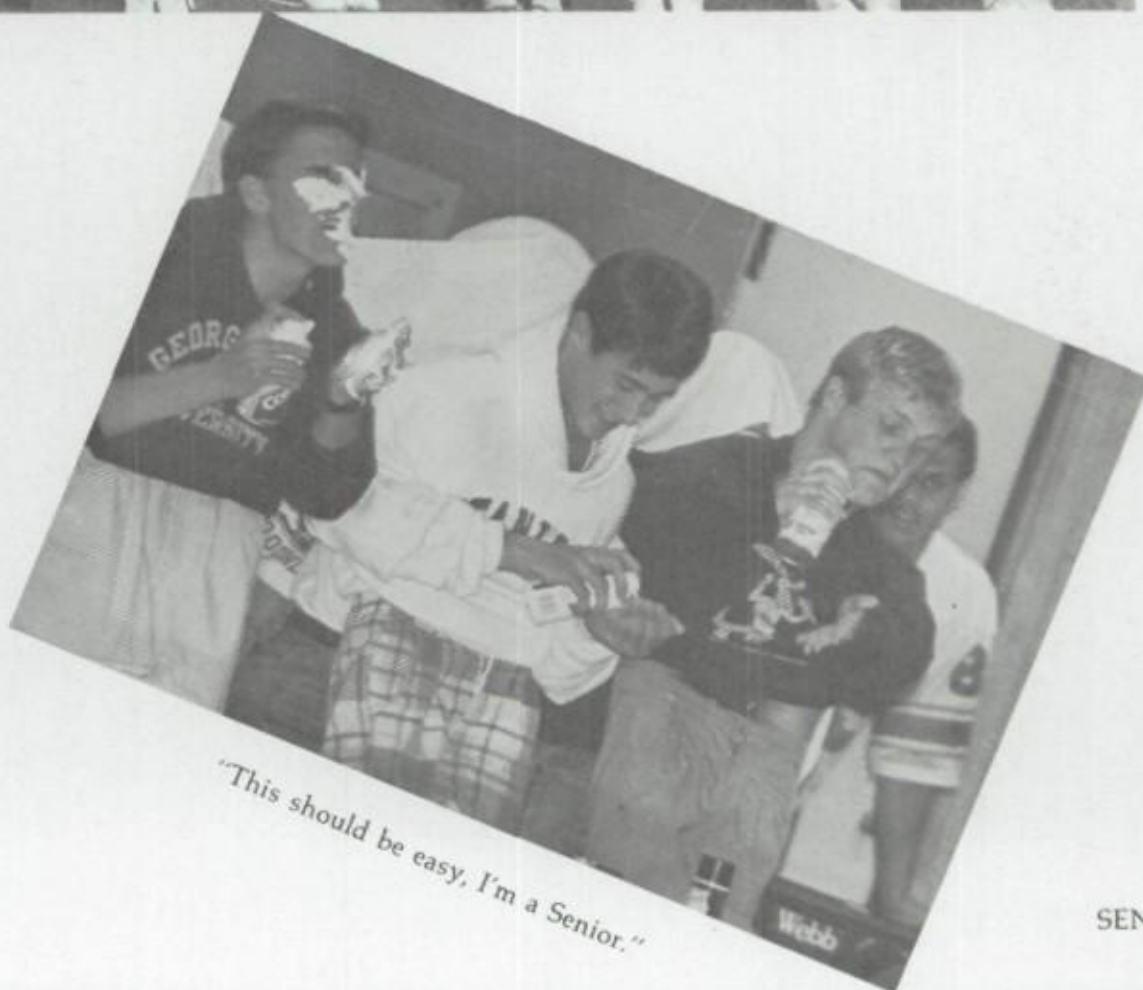

John Renner releases his tension on Elisa Hahn.

OF 1987

At the banquet Seniors show their class.

"This should be easy, I'm a Senior."

MEMORIES WERE MADE AND

FEELINGS WERE SHARED

SENIORS

The winners: Marc Williams, Courtney Triggs and Maurice Murdock showed the Beastie Boys "New Style."

S.A.D.D. KNOWS THE TEMPO

The lead singer Maurice Murdock.

"A Fly Girl," exclaimed Molly McKereghan.

Giving it his all, Carl Erikson does his duty as the crowd goes wild.

S.A.D.D. put on its 2nd Annual Lip Sync event on January 8th and 9th. By charging 25¢ a person S.A.D.D. made a total of 250 dollars. The money went to Safe Rides and the Senior Ball where they passed out two dimes and the phone number of Safe Rides. First place winners were Maurice Murdock, Marc Williams and Courtney Triggs. They won by doing "The New Style" by the Beastie Boys. Second place winners were Carl Erikson and Molly McKereghan imitating the song "Fly Girl" by the Boogie Boys. Marcus Tolibas, Mickey Miller and Jason Omania came in third with the song "Paul Revere" also by the Beastie Boys. The two presidents, Steve Johnson and Molly McKereghan helped a great deal to bring about the annual S.A.D.D. Lip Sync and to end with a quote, "We're not telling you not to drink but remember - Stay Alive, Don't drink and drive," exclaimed Steve Johnson.

Singing another Beastie Boys song "Paul Revere" is Marcus Tolibas.

One of Marcus's accomplice's is Mickey Miller.

YOUTH EDUCATORS—TEACHING

Concord High has a great team of Youth Educators. What is a Youth Educator? A Youth Educator is a dedicated Junior or Senior who has volunteered their time and effort to teaching 7th and 8th grade kids about drugs and alcohol abuse and how to say NO. Every Monday the Youth Educators meet for two hours to learn how they would be teaching their classes. After a few months they went into the El Dorado classes once a week for one period and taught the kids. The Youth Educator advisors were Concord High's Connie Benton, El Dorado's Don Paulsen and Norma Mork.

This is Concord's second year having Youth Educators and this year the team has doubled in size, so 7th and 8th grades both can be taught at the same time. The Youth Educators program is sponsored by the Concord High and El Dorado parent clubs. Levi's also donated sweat-shirts to the team.

Those involved in this program have said that it is a rewarding and fun thing to be involved in. Concord High is proud to have such a dedicated group of kids!

Friendly. If there were one word alone to describe the typical Minuteman, it would be "friendly". Our warmth is the main reason that students here at Concord wouldn't go to any other school in the district. At the other less hospitable high schools, sharply divided cliques prevent different types of people from mixing: i.e. segregated parties, hang-outs, and groups. Stereotype personalities (jock, mod, skater, stoner, rappers, etc.) and prejudices keep all sorts of compatible people from mingling. But not at Concord High! We pride ourselves on our eagerness to meet new friends no matter what they look like. Walk into a Concord party and you'll see all kinds of beautiful people, having a good time! And that's why Concord is the most harmonious school. Come up and see us some time!

Don Strong not only goes cross country, he goes cross quad.

During lunch, Lance Brittain trains for the frisbee championships in Huntington Beach.

Even though the smoking section is closed, its still a lunchtime hangout.

FRIENDSHIP IS LOVE

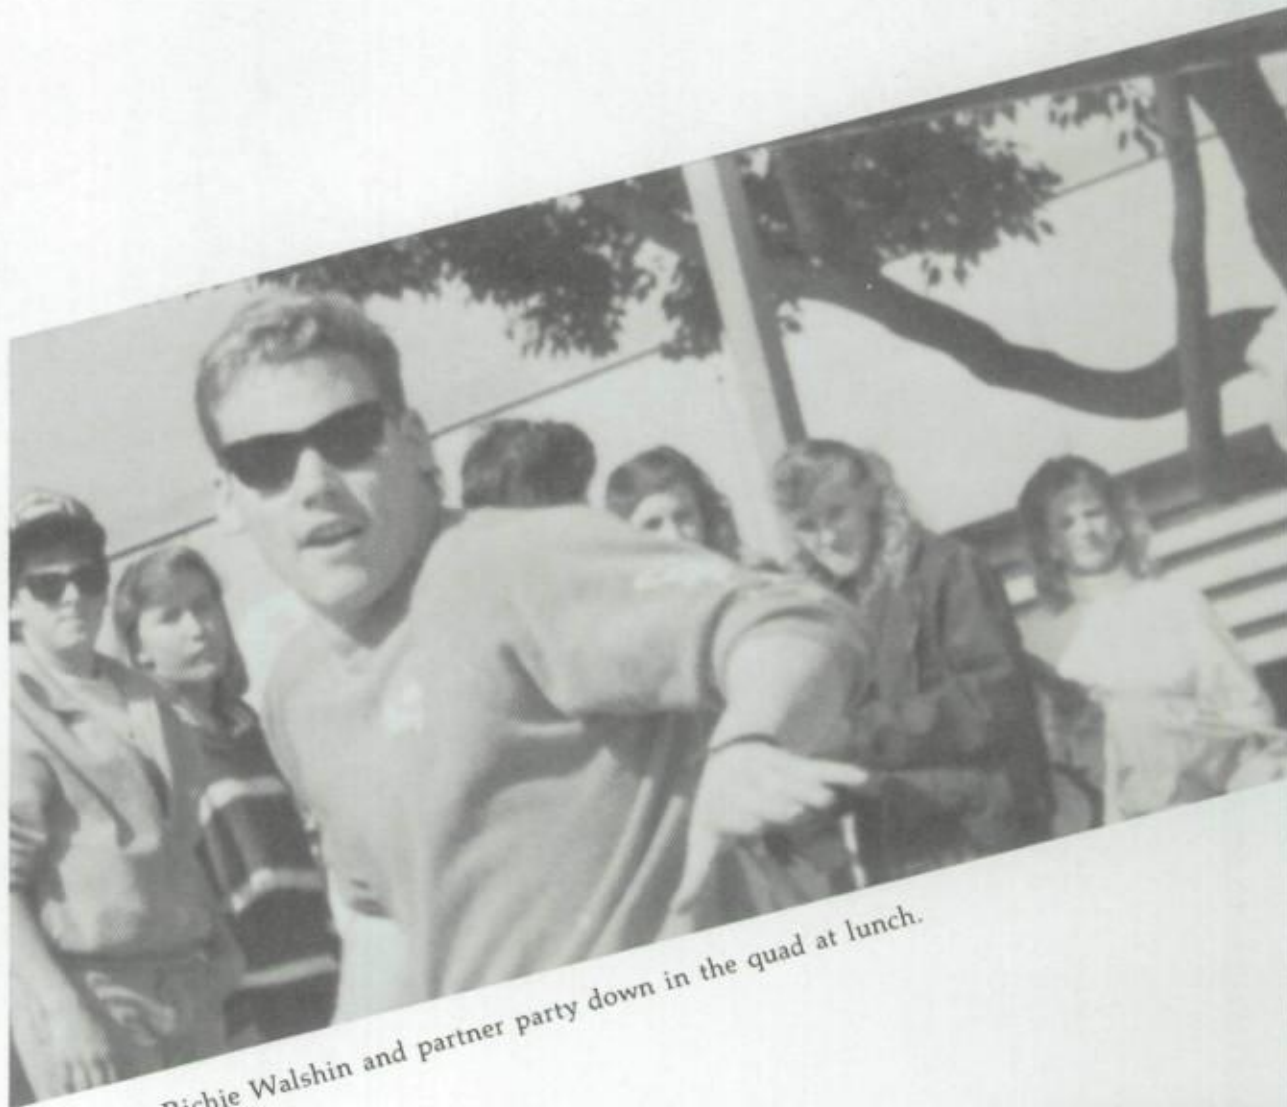

Yeah, CHS!: Jackie Shinn and Christine Nettleman give the thumbs-up sign.

The tease: D'Arcy Dornan flashes his irresistible grin.

No more braces!: Anne (R&R) Rugani smiles mysteriously at lunch.

Get down!: Richie Walshin and partner party down in the quad at lunch.

Strawberry Cooler: Stella Ngai, Lindy (Zipperhead) Knepper, and Mel Cuevas share the joy of being a teenager at lunch.

WITHOUT HIS WINGS

"No, I'm not Lori!" Shannon Chryst tells us once and for all.

The year is over, it's finally done

We've made many memories, had lots of fun

We'll never forget the good times we've had

Because soon we'll part, it will be sad

Now it's time to say goodbye

But we'll never forget times at Concord High.

Christine Dugan, Evelyn Keller, Melissa Dolby, and Jennie Stuart scope the quad for gaping babes.

Extra Special Thanks: To Mark Scheef, our class photographer.

Also to Mike Thomas from Beem Studios for all those rush jobs! To Mark Millican for driving us down to Beem to do the cover (if he hadn't, this book might have been puke green!). To our parents for all those trips to Federal Express! To the administration, for letting us have a yearbook class (See! Look what you got!). To Dwight Purdy for his ideas and artwork. Finally, to our advisor, Mike Klarer, for his help and the ability to set our priorities!

Dearest Scotty,

Hola! Que tal?! This year has been great! I'm really glad we had Español together! I'll always remember the little fiestas and the donuts that Mr. Blank always brought.

But I can't believe how fast our "Fishstick" year has gone by! It seems like yesterday when me, you, Di and Ron went to the bank and got E locked out of the car! That was so funny! We tried almost everything to open it! Thank goodness your mom came to the rescue!

Well, I hope you have a really peachy-keen, jolly summer! And keep in touch!

Love,

Charity

P.S. We have a rad B-Dang!

Scotty, this year was just Bis boy! sweetly this year. Thanks for all the help
This year. By the way, you're the only cool rock well times a summer out so farewell,
Yours truly
Eric

Eric

Dear Scotty,
I'm so glad we are friends. Too bad we only had one class together!
I wish we were better friends but maybe next year we can be. You are a total sweetheart and I'm glad to know you. I wish I got to see more of you wrestling matches. Especially one you were in!! Who knows maybe next year I will. It was really nice to see you every morning except for the fact that everytime I went over to talk to you Charlie would tell me to leave. That's okay though. Oh, I must apologize for my nice picture. See, I got it-takes which were a lot better and they put my first one in.
Call me!!

Scott,
The year is finally over and we're finally done with Señor Blank's Español Dos!
Es posible que fué este ~~tan~~ bueno como yo un día, pero no sé. (Unchiste)
Have a great summer and I'll see you next year!

Scott -
No more Johnke - can you believe it?
I dreaded 2nd period every day. It was at times when we would make fun of him, or of Azim, Warman, etc.
Next year upperclassmen! Right on!
Have a great time this summer. &
I'll see you next year.

We didn't really do anything together this year but we're still friends. Hope your year didn't suck like mine. Have a rad summer
